Intellectual Property Law: Text, Cases & Materials

First Edition 2025

The book talks about the intellectual property law of Bangladesh with notes to key international treaties dealing with classical and non-classical forms of intellectual properties. The discussion on each type of IPs properly involves with general principles, references to the treaty obligations and international best practices finding relevant provisions in the local primary and secondary legislations. This discussion also comprises the analysis of intellectual property cases drawn on from the local and foreign jurisdictions. The discussion evolves on how an intellectual creation qualifies as an intellectual property, and how its registration and protection can be ensured locally and internationally within the administrative and judicial settings. The discussion also focuses on exceptions to intellectual property rules which can help fulfilling the substantive needs of the people in a least developed country like Bangladesh when will graduate to the developing country status soon.
