Cambridge Celta Language Awareness Task:

Debating in Teaching and Learning English Ben Wilson, 2024-04-18 This book offers the first full length treatment of the topic of debating as a method of developing English Foreign Language EFL speaking inviting scholars and practitioners to reflect on the demands of the current age for moving forward educational practice While debating is a well known method of dialogic speaking and is widely practiced the extent to which it is integrated in adult TEFL has not been established and an understanding of its affordances for developing foreign language speaking is also limited This book fills the gap in the field of TESOL and applied linguistics on the affordances of debating as a form of dialogic speaking that can promote a holistic understanding and improvement of experience of education and indeed academic outcomes The two main themes that situate the work are those of dialogic speaking and affect at times referred to as humanistic positive psychology and social and emotional learning The book details the experiences of an adult EFL debate group in a private language school in the North of Italy It reports how the participants experience the pedagogy so as to offer insights into it as a form of teaching speaking in adult EFL as well as providing a practical framework with lesson plans and curriculum The affordances of debating emerge as being social cognitive educational and communicative and are discussed alongside the work of language teaching scholars Curran and Freire and more broadly within a Social Constructivist approach to education As such debating is discussed as being a holistic and dialogic form of pedagogy Particular attention to experience often affective is also found to be fundamental in planning and assessing educational outcomes for both teachers and learners

Thinking about going into teaching ESL/EFL/ESOL Damian Johnstone,2020-07-30

This short book is for you if you are considering going into the field of teaching English as a second foreign language whether English is your first native language or not I have written it with those who are contemplating pursuing English teaching ESL EFL or ESOL as a career option particularly in mind but it would also be of interest to individuals who might be thinking about engaging in English teaching on a short term or voluntary basis My purpose in writing this book is to help you decide whether or not teaching English as a second foreign language is something you might want to pursue Based upon my own experience of teaching English as a second language and my knowledge of the English language teaching field more broadly I discuss what it is like in practical terms to be an ESL EFL ESOL teacher what the job involves and what to expect beyond the practicalities to give some insight into how EFL teachers think about their task the skills qualities and knowledge needed to be an ESL EFL ESOL teacher the kind of opportunities available I also give some ideas about where to begin with getting into English teaching and I provide recommendations on how to find out more about the field Although the focus of this book is the teaching of the English language much of what is written will be equally relevant to teaching any language So if English is not your first language and you are interested in teaching your native language to those who do not know it this book is for you too
