The Art of Nonfiction Movie Making Jeffrey Friedman, Rob Epstein, Sharon Wood, 2012-08-17 The past few years have featured such blockbusters as Super Size Me, Fahrenheit 9/11, Sicko, March of the Penguins and An Inconvenient Truth. And as news articles proclaim a new era in the history of documentary films, more and more new directors are making their first film a nonfiction one. But in addition to posing all of the usual challenges inherent to more standard filmmaking, documentaries also present unique problems that need to be understood from the outset: Where does the idea come from? How do you raise the money? How much money do you need? What visual style is best suited to the story? What are the legal issues involved? And how can a film reach that all-important milestone and find a willing distributor? Epstein, Friedman, and Wood tackle all of these important questions with examples and anecdotes from their own careers. The result is an informative and entertaining guide for those just starting out and an enlightening read for anyone interested in a behind-the-scenes look at this newly reinvigorated field of film.

The Documentary Film Makers Handbook Genevieve Jolliffe, Andrew Zinnes, 2006-11-14 Documentary films have enjoyed a huge resurgence over the last few years, and there's a new generation of filmmakers wanting to get involved. In addition, the digital revolution has made documentaries even more accessible to the general filmmaker. Documentary films can now be shot professionally using cheaper equipment, and smaller cameras enable the documentarian to be less intrusive and therefore more intimate in the subject's life. With an increasing number of documentaries making it to the big screen and enjoying ongoing sales on DVD, the time is right for an information-packed handbook that will guide new filmmakers towards potential artistic and commercial success. The Documentary Film Makers Handbook features incisive and helpful interviews with dozens of industry professionals on subjects as diverse as interview techniques, the NBC News Archive, music rights, setting up your own company, the Film Arts Foundation, pitching your proposal, the Sundance Documentary Fund, the Documentary Channel, the British Film Council, camera hire, filmmaking ethics, working with kids, editing your documentary, and DVD distribution. The book also includes in-depth case studies of some of the most successful and acclaimed documentary films of recent years, including Mad Hot Ballroom, Born Into Brothels, Touching the Void, Beneath the Veil, and Amandla. The Documentary Film Makers Handbook will be an essential resource for anyone who wants to know more about breaking into this exciting field.

Cultural Amnesia Clive James,2007 In the forty years it took me to write this book I only gradually realized that the finished work if it were going to be true to the pattern of my experience would have no pattern The book I wanted to write had its origins in the books I was reading Several times in my early days I had to sell my best books to buy food so I never underlined anything When conditions improved I became less fastidious Not long after I began marking passages for future consideration I also began keeping notes in the margin beside the markings and then longer notes on the endpapers As the time for assembling my reflections approached I resolved that a premature synthesis was the thing to be avoided So this is a book about how not to reach one If I have done my job properly themes will emerge from the apparent randomness and make this work intelligible But it will undoubtedly be a turbulent read and if this book were not difficult it would not be true A lifetime in the making Cultural Amnesia is the book Clive James has always wanted to write Organized from A through to Z and containing over 100 essays it is the ultimate guide to the twentieth century illuminating the careers of many of its greatest thinkers humanists musicians artists and philosophers From Louis Armstrong to Ludwig Wittgenstein via Walter Benjamin Sigmund Freud Franz Kafka and Marcel Proust it is a book for our times and indeed for all time
