Monkey Beach Eden Robinson:

Monkey Beach Eden Robinson, 2000 As Lisamarie travels by speedboat five hundred miles north of Vancouver searching for her drowned brother's body she recounts her life which has included visits by ghosts and shapeshifters and tormenting premonitions Monkey Beach C Book Club Eden Robinson, 2000-10-05 This Elusive Land Melody Hessing, Rebecca Raglon, Catriona Sandilands, 2005 This Elusive Land provides an introduction to the literature about women and the environment in Canada It looks at the ways in which women integrate the social and biophysical settings of their lives and features a range of contexts in which gender mediates inspires and informs a sense of belonging to and in this land Drawing from geographical historical and cultural perspectives the volume reveals the significance of women's experiences in various landscapes Jacket Key elements of storytelling in "Monkey Beach". Oral tradition turned into literature Sina Laura Rautmann, 2017-07-10 Seminar paper from the year 2016 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 2 0 Leuphana Universität Lüneburg Institute of English Studies language English abstract Only very few people are used to storytelling for even fairy tales are written down and read out loud to children the same way over and over again without alteration Changing perspective to first nation tribes one can easily discover the importance that oral tradition and storytelling has to these people It existed long before literature was introduced by the settlers in the post colonial era While contemporary Canadian fiction and short story writing developed in the middle of the nineteenth century Native Canadian Writing was forced to create their own distinctive style of writing By combining storytelling with literature the new genre of storywriting was created In this paper I will analyze the key features of storywriting and will exemplify them with quotes from the book Monkey Beach by Eden Robinson 2000 First I will present a short overview over the author and the book in general Then I will give a brief overview about the main motifs symbols and topics that the book deals with In the main part of this paper I will present different quotes and show typical aspects for oral tradition that can be found within them Canadian Cultural Exchange Lucien Pelletier, Norman Cheadle, 2007-07-23 The essays in Canadian Cultural Exchange changes cultures au Canada provide a nuanced view of Canadian transcultural experience Rather than considering Canada as a bicultural dichotomy of colonizer colonized this book examines a field of many cultures and the creative interactions among them This study discusses from various perspectives Canadian cultural space as being in process of continual translation of both the other and oneself Les articles réunis dans Canadian Cultural Exchange changes cultures au Canada donnent de l'expérience transculturelle canadienne une image nuancée Plutôt que dans les termes d'une dichotomie biculturelle entre colonisateur et colonisé le Canada y est vu comme champ où plusieurs cultures interagissent de manière créative Cette étude présente sous de multiples aspects le processus continu de traduction d'autrui et de soi-même auquel l'espace culturel canadien sert de théâtre The Testimonial Uncanny Julia V. Emberley, 2014-09-30 Through the study of Indigenous literary and artistic practices from Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States Julia V

Emberley examines the ways Indigenous storytelling discloses and repairs the traumatic impact of social violence in settler colonial nations She focuses on Indigenous storytelling in a range of cultural practices including novels plays performances media reports Internet museum exhibits and graphic novels In response to historical trauma such as that experienced at Indian residential schools as well as present day violence against Indigenous bodies and land Indigenous storytellers make use of Indigenous spirituality and the sacred to inform an ethics of hospitality They provide uncanny configurations of political and social kinships between people between the past and the present and between the animate and inanimate This book introduces readers to cultural practices and theoretical texts concerned with bringing Indigenous epistemologies to the discussion of trauma and colonial violence Unsettled Remains Cynthia Sugars, Gerry Turcotte, 2009-08-04 Unsettled Remains Canadian Literature and the Postcolonial Gothic examines how Canadian writers have combined a postcolonial awareness with gothic metaphors of monstrosity and haunting in their response to Canadian history The essays gathered here range from treatments of early postcolonial gothic expression in Canadian literature to attempts to define a Canadian postcolonial gothic mode Many of these texts wrestle with Canada's colonial past and with the voices and histories that were repressed in the push for national consolidation but emerge now as uncanny reminders of that contentious history The haunting effect can be unsettling and enabling at the same time In recent years many Canadian authors have turned to the gothic to challenge dominant literary political and social narratives In Canadian literature the postcolonial gothic has been put to multiple uses above all to figure experiences of ambivalence that have emerged from a colonial context and persisted into the present As these essays demonstrate formulations of a Canadian postcolonial gothic differ radically from one another depending on the social and cultural positioning of who is positing it Given the preponderance in colonial discourse of accounts that demonize otherness it is not surprising that many minority writers have avoided gothic metaphors In recent years however minority authors have shown an interest in the gothic signalling an emerging critical discourse This spectral turn sees minority writers reversing long standing characterizations of their identity as monstrous or invisible in order to show their connections to and disconnection from stories of the nation Monkey Beach Eden Robinson, 2002-04-01

Global Indigenous Horror Naomi Simone Borwein, 2025-03-31 SHORT LISTED AS A 2025 BRAM STOKER AWARD NOMINEE FOR SUPERIOR ACHIEVEMENT IN LONG NON FICTION Contributions by Katrin Althans Jayson Althofer Naomi Simone Borwein Persephone Braham Krista Collier Jarvis Shane Hawk Jade Jenkinson June Scudeler and Sabrina Zacharias Global Indigenous Horror is a collection of essays that positions Indigenous Horror as more than just a genre but as a narrative space where the spectral and social converge where the uncanny becomes a critique and the monstrous mirrors the human While contentions swirl around the genre category this exploratory anthology is the first critical edited collection dedicated solely to ways of theorizing and analyzing Indigenous Horror literature The essays curated by scholar Naomi Simone Borwein ask readers to consider what Global Indigenous Horror is and to whom The volume opens with a preface by international bestselling horror writer Shane Hawk enrolled Cheyenne Arapaho Hidatsa and Potawatomi descent followed by an overview of Global Indigenous Horror trends aesthetics and approaches The carefully selected contributions explore Indigenous Horror literature and mixed media narratives worldwide unraveling the intricate dynamics between the local and global traditional and contemporary and human and monstrous Contributor chapters are grouped not by geographical or cultural variation but along a spectrum from a strong emphasis on ways of knowing to a critical inspection of Horror through Indigenous Gothic aesthetics across cultural boundaries and against and beyond nation states

Monkey Beach Eden Robinson, 2013 A young Native American woman remembers her volatile childhood as she searches for her lost brother in the Canadian wilds in an extraordinary critically acclaimed debut novel As she races along Canada's Douglas Channel in her speedboat heading toward the place where her younger brother Jimmy presumed drowned was last seen twenty year old Lisamarie Hill recalls her younger days A volatile and precocious Native girl growing up in Kitamaat the Haisla Indian reservation located five hundred miles north of Vancouver Lisa came of age standing with her feet firmly planted in two different worlds the spiritual realm of the Haisla and the sobering real world with its dangerous temptations of violence drugs and despair From her beloved grandmother Ma ma oo she learned of tradition and magic from her adored Elvis loving uncle Mick a Native rights activist on a perilous course she learned to see clearly to speak her mind and never to bow down But the tragedies that have scarred her life and ultimately led her to these frigid waters cannot destroy her indomitable spirit even though the ghosts that speak to her in the night warn her that the worst may be yet to come Easily one of the most admired debut novels to appear in many a decade Eden Robinson's Monkey Beach was immediately greeted with universal acclaim called gripping by the San Diego Union Tribune wonderful by the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel and glorious by the Globe and Mail earning nominations for numerous literary awards before receiving the Ethel Wilson Fiction Prize Evocative moving haunting and devastatingly funny it is an extraordinary read from a brilliant literary voice that must be heard

The Canadian crime novel in the tension between ethics, integrity, morality and social criticism Matthias Dickert, 2021-04-19

Scientific Study from the year 2021 in the subject American Studies Linguistics language English abstract Matters of ethics and morality have always had a fixed place in crime writing since solving cases like murders is embedded between decision making processes which are bound between good and bad To focus and reflect ethic and moral decisions and to place them within the policeforce itself is however uncommon in crime writing since the policeforces represent the status quo of the state Corrupt policemen or bad cops are still the exception and to set good and bad policemen against each other is still some sort of taboo in this genre since good and bad are normally set between criminals and the police Both analysed novels hereby How the Light Gets In 2013 by Louise Penny and A Deadly Divide 2019 by Ausma Zehanat Khan however are concerned with this topic and show that contemporary Canadian crime writers do include these matters into their work

Beyond The Borders Deborah L. Madsen, 2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America's own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation Ahornblätter ,2007 HJEAS ,2003
