

Activity: Researching Author-Character Connections - Example

This lesson addresses reading writing standards across two novels. Part of this problem is that many students do not have the skills to read for meaning or to make connections between their own lives and the characters in the text. This is an example of the work that we do in this activity.

The goal of this activity is to help students make connections between the text and their own lives. The activity is designed to help you understand the writing process and structure and to encourage students to make connections between the text and their own lives. This is an example of the work that we do in this activity. See this page for additional work on connecting the text to the lives of the characters.
