Miller, 2022-12-22 Miller takes us on an exciting tour of postcolonial and world literature guiding us through the literary maze of the real and the pretenders to the real Ngugi wa Thiong'o author of Wizard of the Crow Writing a new page in the surprisingly long history of literary deceit Impostors examines a series of literary hoaxes deceptions that involved flagrant acts of cultural appropriation This book looks at authors who posed as people they were not in order to claim a different ethnic class or other identity These writers were in other words literary usurpers and appropriators who trafficked in what Christopher L. Miller terms the intercultural hoax In the United States such hoaxes are familiar Forrest Carter's The Education of Little Tree and JT LeRoy's Sarah are two infamous examples Miller's contribution is to study hoaxes beyond our borders employing a comparative framework and bringing French and African identity hoaxes into dialogue with some of their better known American counterparts In France multiculturalism is generally eschewed in favor of universalism and there should thus be no identities in the American sense to steal However as Miller demonstrates this too is a ruse French universalism can only go so far and do so much There is plenty of otherness to appropriate This French and Francophone tradition of imposture has never received the study it deserves Taking a novel approach to this understudied tradition Impostors examines hoaxes in both countries finding similar practices of deception and questions of harm In this fascinating study of intercultural literary hoaxes Christopher L Miller provides a useful brief history of American literary impostures as a backdrop for his investigation of France s literary history of ethnic usurpation Henry Louis Gates Jr New York Times bestselling author White Dog Romain Gary,2004-12 Both a personal memoir and a French novelist s encounter with American reality White Dog is an unforgettable portrait of racism and hypocrisy Set in the tumultuous Los Angeles of 1968 Romain Gary s story begins when a German shepherd strays into his life He was watching me his head cocked to one side with that unbearable intensity of dogs in the pound waiting for a rescuer A lost police canine this white dog is programmed to respond violently to the sight of a black man and Gary s attempts to deprogram it like his attempts to protect his wife the actress Jean Seberg like her endeavors to help black activists like his need to rescue himself from the predicament of being trapped lock stock and barrel within a human skin lead from crisis to grief Using the re education of this adopted pet as a metaphor for the need to quash American racism Gary develops a domestic crisis into a full scale social allegory THE GASP.
