Robert Kegan The Evolving Self :

The Evolving Self Robert Kegan,1983-08-15 The Evolving Self focuses upon the most basic and universal of psychological problems the individual s effort to make sense of experience to make meaning of life Meaning making is a lifelong activity that begins in earliest infancy and continues to evolve through a series of stages encompassing childhood adolescence and adulthood The Evolving Self, an Address on Continuing Education Robert Kegan,1988 Robert Kegan takes to a group of lawyers involved in professional continuing education about the importance of adult developmental stages in adult education The Developing Christian Peter Feldmeier,2007 Charts spiritual progress through the life cycle by being attentive to classical and modern models of human development and spiritual progress The Evolution of a Vow Judith Schaefer,2009 For centuries the vow of obedience has been at the heart of religious life With the renewal efforts of Vatican II the vow has been dramatically restructured but not theologically re envisioned The Evolution of a Vow Obedience as Decision Making in Communion addresses the changes in the vow and proposes a renewed theology that supports the living out of obedience in the twenty first century Obedience in communion as a theological proposal invites vowed religious to create a pattern of limitless listening that everywhere seeks the call of God to communion Against the horizon of communion obedience becomes the singular thread of grace by which vowed religious become who they are called to be

A Holy Haunting Sam D. Kim,2023-04-11 What if we ve been looking at faith all wrong What if the rise of spiritual consciousness is not a mere byproduct of cultural factors but an echo resounding from eternity Atheists like Richard Dawkins often mock prayer equating it to calling upon a fairy in the sky This misunderstanding of prayer s purpose pervades western society criticizing those that practice traditional faith as old fashioned or out of touch In A Holy Haunting Dr Sam D Kim interacts with this perception of faith and challenges readers to look at faith another way The rise of modernism was both a blessing and curse for the church while modernists articulated belief in a succinct and coherent fashion they reduced the mystery and wonder of faith to nothing more than blind belief According to Dr Sam D Kim faith is not a set of beliefs but a central aspect of human existence defining who they are in the deepest ontological sense Unlike many who discredit the power of the spiritual or immaterial Dr Kim sees human consciousness the soul as evidence of humanity being forged in the corridors of eternity before the primordial universe and the Big Bang A roadmap of discovery for skeptics and believers alike A Holy Haunting befriends the doubter challenges the churchgoer and gives fresh perspective to the seeker Speak the Truth and Point to Hope Lisa Marshall,2004 Dancing in the Wild Spaces of Love James H. Olthuis,2022-06-08 In the twenty first century amid globalized violence rising demagogues and the climate emergency contemporary philosophers and theologians have begun to debate a fundamental question Is our reality the result of the overflowing ever present creativity of Love or the symptom of a traumatic rupture at the heart of all things Drawing on decades of research in postmodern philosophy and experience as a psychotherapist James H Olthuis wades into this discussion to propose a radical ontology of Love without metaphysics In dialogue with philosophers like John D Caputo Slavoj i ek Luce Irigaray and others Olthuis explores issues from divine sovereignty and the problem of evil to trauma and social ethics Experience in therapeutic work informs these investigations rooting them in journeys with individuals on the path to healing Olthuis makes the bold claim that while trauma pain and suffering are significant parts of our human lives nevertheless Love is with us to the very end Creation is a gift that comes with a call to make something of it ourselves a risky task we must take on with the promise that Love will win We are all dancing in the wild spaces of Love ex amore cum amore ad amorem Tell Me So I Can Hear You Eleanor Drago-Severson, Jessica Blum-DeStefano, 2017-11-14 In Tell Me So I Can Hear You Eleanor Drago Severson and Jessica Blum DeStefano show how education leaders can learn to deliver feedback in a way that strengthens relationships as well as performance and builds the capacity for growth Drawing on constructive developmental theory the authors describe four stages of adult growth and development and explain how to differentiate feedback for colleagues with different ways of knowing which include Instrumental knowers who tend to see things in black and white Did I do it right or wrong and may need to develop the capacity for reflection Socializing knowers who are concerned with maintaining relationships What do you want me to do and may need support developing their own ideas Self authoring knowers who have strong ideologies and values How does this fit with my goals and vision and may need help with perspective taking Self transformative knowers who are able to examine issues from multiple points of view How can I understand this more deeply and may need guidance in resolving tensions and contradictions The authors show how leaders can provide feedback in ways that meet people where they are while expanding the developmental capacities educators bring to their work Drago Severson and Blum DeStefano provide real life examples with practical strategies for creating a safe space for feedback finding the right words and bridging feedback and action Tell Me So I Can Hear You offers invaluable guidance to help educators support a culture of learning in classrooms schools and districts An Unchanged Mind John A.
