Qur'an in its true sense Today's Muslims have two main objectives for their children: success in this world and triumph in the life hereafter. Muslim children need natural and social knowledge but to fully enrich their minds they also need to learn about the Quran and Islamic traditions. Many Islamic schools in North America are pursuing both of these objectives but educators often feel that merging these two goals is too difficult. Having spent years teaching in Islamic schools and conducting a wealth of research, Roohi A. Ahmad has observed firsthand how complex the enterprise of Islamic education is. She has also witnessed the void of learning outcomes, teaching goals, and most importantly, a clear vision and methodology for Islamic education. She has sought to remedy that situation in this book. It provides a practical methodology designed to help Muslim educators create a state-of-the-art Islamic education system that will lead to fully formed students who can function well in this world and ensure a positive outcome in the world to come.
