Entangled and Empowered: Agency in Multispecies Communities Keri Stevenson, 2025-08-19 Entangled and Empowered Agency in Multispecies Communities is a collection that approaches the inevitable reality of entanglement between humans and other beings from a perspective of action and wonder It argues that actors as diverse as bacteria snakes butterflies ducks and cacao trees can help us enact joy in fields as different as art cinema literature and anthropology While acknowledging the imminent reality of climate change the sixth extinction and other overwhelming threats to the Earth this book argues that humans continue to live and so do the beings whose lives are entwined with ours for whom we can acknowledge and work to improve their existence The nine essays in this volume trace that acknowledgment and work through three sections centered on visual media queer and feminist readings of empowerment and movements beyond the boundaries enacted by anthropocentric Western society Drawing on theories such as new materialism posthumanism and ecofeminism and with an international perspective from authors working at American South Asian and East Asian universities Entangled and Empowered finds hope in the shadow of despair It engages with work by Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing on entanglement Donna Haraway on kin making and multispecies communities and Karen Barad on intra actions among others while also showing how critiques of these ideas can make the world both more promising and more endangered This collection will be useful for scholars working in all subfields of environmental humanities especially those intersecting with the theories described above and as an archive of examples analyzing practical aspects of agency in diverse multispecies communities Scholars studying texts as well known as The Handmaid's Tale and as obscure as the codices of the Mopan Maya will find value in having both under one cover
