organization of these raw materials in their improvisations In this book jazz guitarist and educator Davy Mooney describes the method he devised to help intermediate to advanced players improve their phrasing He presents a series of jazz solos based on the styles of players such as Dexter Gordon Miles Davis Bud Powell and Joe Pass converts them to rhythmic notation and demonstrates how one can improvise on the phrase structure of these solos using one's own notes In other words you play where the soloist played and rest where they rested The book contains audio examples of Mooney
