Rethinking Scientific Change and Theory Comparison: Léna Soler, H. Sankey, Paul Hoyningen-Huene, 2008-05-29 L NA SOLER This volume is a collection of essays devoted to the analysis of scientific change and stability It represents the most recent thinking on the topic of incommensurability and scientific theory change It explores the balance and tension that exists between commensurability and continuity or stabilities on the one hand and incommensurability and discontinuity or ruptures on the other And it discusses some central epistemological consequences regarding the nature of scientific progress rationality and realism With respect to these topics it investigates a number of new avenues and revisits some familiar issues with a focus on the history and philosophy of physics in a way that is informed by developments in cognitive sciences as well as the claims of New experimentalists The essays in this book are fully revised versions of papers which were originally presented at the international colloquium Repenser l'évaluation comparative des théories scientifiques stabilité ruptures incommensurabilité organized by Léna Soler and Paul Hoyningen-Huene at the University of Nancy France in June 2004 Each paper is followed by a critical comment which either represents an opposing viewpoint or suggests some developments. The conference was a striking example of the sort of genuine dialogue that can take place between philosophers of science, historians of science and scientists who come from different traditions and endorse opposing commitments. I hope that this is evident in the book too and that it will constitute one of its attractions.
