Balconville:

Behind the Scenes Mary Ross, Ron Cameron, 1990-09 Scenes from Canadian plays for two to six actors Thirty two excellent opportunities for young thespians these are texts which I would certainly use with my own senior students of dramatic arts Reviewing Librarian Balconville, by David Fennario, [directed by Paul Thompson]. ,1992

Deindustrializing Montreal Steven High, 2022-05-25 Point Saint Charles a historically white working class neighbourhood with a strong Irish and French presence and Little Burgundy a multiracial neighbourhood that is home to the city's English speaking Black community face each other across Montreal's Lachine Canal once an artery around which work and industry in Montreal were clustered and by which these two communities were formed and divided Deindustrializing Montreal challenges the deepening divergence of class and race analysis by recognizing the intimate relationship between capitalism class struggles and racial inequality Fundamentally deindustrialization is a process of physical and social ruination as well as part of a wider political project that leaves working class communities impoverished and demoralized The structural violence of capitalism occurs gradually and out of sight but it doesn't play out the same for everyone Point Saint Charles was left to rot until it was revalorized by gentrification whereas Little Burgundy was torn apart by urban renewal and highway construction This historical divergence had profound consequences in how urban change has been experienced understood and remembered Drawing extensive interviews a massive and varied archive of imagery and original photography by David Lewis into a complex chorus Steven High brings these communities to life tracing their history from their earliest years to their decline and their current reality He extends the analysis of deindustrialization often focused on single industry towns to cities that have seemingly made the post industrial transition The urban neighbourhood has never been a settled concept and its apparent innocence masks considerable contestation divergence and change over time Deindustrializing Montreal thinks critically about locality revealing how heritage becomes an agent of gentrification investigating how places like Little Burgundy and the Point acquire race and class identities and questioning what is preserved and for whom Text & Presentation, 2005 Stratos E. Constantinidis, 2009-12-21 Text Presentation is an annual publication devoted to all aspects of theatre scholarship It represents a selection of the best research presented at the international interdisciplinary Comparative Drama Conference This anthology includes papers from the 29th annual conference held in Northridge California Topics covered include drama in Ireland Greece England Eastern Europe Korea Japan and North America

Balconville David Fennario, 1980 Canada's first bilingual play set on the balconies of Montreal one hot July Cast of 3 women and 6 men Performance, Subjectivity, Cosmopolitanism Yana Meerzon, 2020-08-07 This book looks at the connection between contemporary theatre practices and cosmopolitanism a philosophical condition of social behaviour based on our responsibility respect and healthy curiosity to the other Advocating for cosmopolitanism has become a necessity in a world defined by global wars mass migration and rise of nationalism Using empathy affect and telling personal stories of displacement through embodied encounter between the actor and their audience performance arts can serve as a training ground for this social behavior In the centre of this encounter is a new cosmopolitan a person of divided origins and cultural heritage someone who speaks many languages and claims different countries as their place of belonging The book examines how European and North American theatres stage this divided subjectivity both from within the way we tell stories about ourselves to others and from without through the stories the others tell about us Telling Environmental Histories Katie Holmes, Heather Goodall, 2017-12-12 This collection explores the intersections of oral history and environmental history Oral history offers environmental historians the opportunity to understand the ways people's perceptions experiences and beliefs about environments change over time In turn the insights of environmental history challenge oral historians to think more critically about the ways an active more than human world shapes experiences and people The integration of these approaches enables us to more fully and critically understand the ways cultural and individual memory and experience shapes human interactions with the more than human world just as it enables us to identify the ways human memory identity and experience is moulded by the landscapes and environments in which people live and labour It includes contributions from Australia India the UK Canada and the USA Post-Colonial English Drama Bruce King, 1993-02-12 Post Colonial English Drama is the first critical survey of contemporary Commonwealth drama Besides essays on such individual dramatists as Wole Soyinka Derek Walcott David Williamson Louis Nowra Athol Fugard George Walker Sharon Pollock and Judith Thompson there are surveys of the dramatic literature and developments in the theatre in Australia Canada India New Zealand South Africa Papua New Guinea Ghana Nigeria Jamaica and Trinidad Canadian woman dramatists and the new radical South African theatre are also among the topics Canadian Drama, 1986 Canadian Theatre Review, 1986

Bruce Henry, 1997 When Maurice Podbrey arrived in Montreal from England to teach at the National Theatre School in the autumn of 1966 Canadian theatre was in ferment and the excitement of Expo 67 and Canada's centenary was in the air By 1969 he had become founding artistic director of Montreal's Centaur Theatre and embarked on twenty eight successful seasons of theatre The story of the Centaur and Podbrey's reflections on theatre directing acting and actors theatre administration teaching the audience and critics spotlights Canada's remarkable cultural evolution over the last three decades Montreal, the New Cité Gerald Clark, 1982 Here, There and Everywhere Shimon Levy, 1996 This volume focuses on stage design and dramatic space using the notion of offstage characterized as an active present in abstentia universal highly creative and medium orientated ambience to offer a link between the Canadian and Israeli theatre traditions The Columbia Encyclopedia of Modern Drama Gabrielle H. Cody, Evert Sprinchorn, 2007 The Columbia Encyclopedia of Modern Drama covers the period from 1860 to the present The distinctive feature of this encyclopedia is the emphasis it places on the cultural context of dramatic works and their authors Preface Canadian Canons Robert Lecker,1991 In 12 essays on English and French criticism fiction poetry and drama scholars from across Canada are less concerned with identifying a Canadian canon than with examining the forces that shape canonical activity in Canadian literature and criticism Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Stages of Translation David Johnston,1996 Stages of Translation is a unique collection of interviews and essays which deal with the art no less than the business of preparing performance scripts from works originally written in languages other than English Among its contributors are some of the finest dramatists and drama translators currently working in English David Hare Ranjit Bolt Jeremy Sams Neil Bartlett John Clifford Adrian Mitchell David Rudkin Nick Dear and Kenneth McLeish are just some of those contributing The book ranges widely over issues of cultural ownership the invisibility of the translator the relationship between translation and adaptation the practical demands of stagecraft and the collective nature of theatre making Selecta ,1991 Casselman's Canadian Words Bill Casselman,1995 Canadian Folklore ,1987
