Tessa ; The Trader's Wife Louis Becke, 1901 A small squat and dirty looking trading steamer with the name Motutapu painted in yellow letters on her bows and stern lay at anchor off the native village of Utiroa on Drummond s Island in the Equatorial Pacific She was about 800 tons burden and her stained and rusty sides made her appear as if she had been out of port for two years instead of scarcely four months At this present moment four of her five boats were alongside each one piled high over the gunwales with bags of copra which the steam winch was hoisting in as quickly as possible for night was drawing on and Captain Louis Hendry who was then ashore had given orders to the mate a burly Yorkshireman named Oliver to be ready to heave up at six o clock The day had been intensely hot and windless the sea lay sweltering leaden hued and misty and the smoke from the native houses in Utiroa village hung low down amid the groves of coco palms which encompassed it on three sides
