Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Eran Neuman,2023-11-30 Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Building Social Pragmatism offers the first comprehensive survey of the work of Arieh Sharon and analyzes and discusses his designs and plans in relation to the emergence of the State of Israel A graduate of the Bauhaus Sharon worked for a few years at the office of Hannes Mayer before returning to Mandatory Palestine There he established his office which was occupied in its first years in planning kibbutzim and residential buildings in Tel Aviv After the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 Arieh Sharon became the director and chief architect of the National Planning Department where he was asked to devise the young country s first national masterplan Known as the Sharon Plan it was instrumental in shaping the development of the new nation During the 1950s and 1960s Sharon designed many of Israel s institutions including hospitals and buildings on university campuses This book presents Sharon s exceptionally wide range of work and examines his perception of architecture in both socialist and pragmatist terms It also explores Sharon s modernist approach to architecture and his subsequent shift to Brutalist architecture when he partnered with Benjamin Idelson in the 1950s and when his son Eldar Sharon joined the office in 1964 Thus the book contributes a missing chapter in the historiography of Israeli architecture in particular and of modern architecture overall This book will be of interest to researchers in architecture modern architecture Israel studies Middle Eastern studies and migration of knowledge

Environment & Planning ,1980 Artists and Patrons in Post-war Britain Courtauld Institute of Art,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 An examination of art and patronage in Britain during the post war years It consists of five case studies initially written as MA theses that closely investigate aspects of the mechanisms of patronage outside the state institutions while indicating structural links within it The writers have sought to elucidate the relationship between patronage the production of art and its dissemination Without seeking to provide an inclusive account of patronage or art production in the early post war years their disparate and highly selective papers set up models for the structure of patronage under specific historical conditions They assume an understanding that works of art are embedded in their social contexts are products of the conditions under which they were produced and that these contexts and conditions are complex
