Barker, 2021-02-02 In the 1920s newspapers and real estate developers colluded in a scheme to sell tiny vacation lots to subscribers A zealous advertising campaign spawned a land buying frenzy that sprouted dozens of waterfront summer colonies across the country The resulting legal social and environmental mayhem caused some of these communities to disappear or be drastically altered in character while others managed to survive more or less intact Drawing on newspaper accounts of the day this book explores how the scheme eluded accusations of fraud creating an assembly line for middle class resorts through a lucrative merger of real estate and journalism Pell Lake Wisconsin serves as a case study that yields the best evidence for determining if it was all a scam Told here for the first time the story of this unusual alliance and the communities it created offers lessons for today s entrepreneurs journalists advertisers real estate developers environmentalists and anyone who has ever lived in a resort community

Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler,2017-08-15 Finalist for the 2017 National Jewish Book Award in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience presented by the Jewish Book Council Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God s image among others
