Love, Money, and Parenting Matthias Doepke, Fabrizio Zilibotti, 2020-11-03 Doepke and Zilibotti investigate how economic forces shape how parents raise their children They show that in countries with increasing economic inequality such as the United States parents push harder to ensure their children have a path to security and success Economics has transformed the hands off parenting of the 1960s and 70s into a frantic overscheduled activity Growing inequality has also resulted in an increasing parenting gap between richer and poorer families raising the disturbing prospect of diminished social mobility and fewer opportunities for children from disadvantaged backgrounds The authors discuss how investments in early childhood development and the design of education systems factor into the parenting equation and how economics can help shape policies that will contribute to the ideal of equal opportunity for all From publisher description Lawless

Capitalism Steven A. Ramirez, 2014-06 In this innovative and exhaustive study Steven A Ramirez posits that the subprime mortgage crisis as well as the global macroeconomic catastrophe it spawned is traceable to a gross failure of law The rule of law must appropriately channel and constrain the exercise of economic and political power Used effectively it ensures that economic opportunity isn't limited to a small group of elites that enjoy growth at the expense of many particularly those in vulnerable economic situations In Lawless Capitalism Ramirez calls for the rule of law to displace crony capitalism Only through the rule of law he argues can capitalism be reconstructed
