Deep Focus Reflections On Cinema Satyajit Ray:

Deep Focus Satyajit Ray, 2017-08-16 Satyajit Ray is acknowledged as one of the world's finest film makers. His films changed the way the world looked at Indian cinema. But Ray was not only a film maker. He was also a bestselling writer of novels and short stories and possibly the only Indian film maker who wrote prolifically on cinema. This book brings together for the first time in one volume some of his most cerebral writings on film. With the economy and precision that marked his films, Ray writes on the art and craft of cinema, pens an ode to silent cinema, discusses the problems in adapting literary works to film, pays tributes to contemporaries like Godard and Uttam Kumar, and even gives us a peek into his experiences at film festivals both as a jury member and as a contestant. Published in association with the Society for the Preservation of Satyajit Ray Films and including fascinating photographs by and of the master, Deep Focus not only reveals Ray's engagement with cinema but also provides an invaluable insight into the mind of a genius.

Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures Rochona Majumdar, 2021-10-12 Co Winner 2023 Chidananda Dasgupta Award for the Best Writing on Cinema, Chidananda Dasgupta Memorial Trust, Shortlisted 2022 MSA Book Prize, Modernist Studies Association, Longlisted 2022 Moving Image Book Award, Kraszna Krausz Foundation. The project of Indian art cinema began in the years following independence in 1947, at once evoking the global reach of the term art film and speaking to the aspirations of the new nation state. In this pioneering book, Rochona Majumdar examines key works of Indian art cinema to demonstrate how film emerged as a mode of doing history and that in so doing it anticipated some of the most influential insights of postcolonial thought. Majumdar details how filmmakers, as well as a host of film societies and publications, sought to foster a new cinematic culture for the new nation, fueled by enthusiasm for a future of progress and development. Good films would help make good citizens; art cinema would not only earn global prestige but also shape discerning individuals capable of exercising aesthetic and political judgment During the 1960s however Satyajit Ray Mrinal Sen and Ritwik Ghatak the leading figures of Indian art cinema became disillusioned with the belief that film was integral to national development Instead Majumdar contends their works captured the unresolvable contradictions of the postcolonial present which pointed toward possible yet unrealized futures Analyzing the films of Ray Sen and Ghatak and working through previously unexplored archives of film society publications Majumdar offers a radical reinterpretation of Indian film history Art Cinema and India's Forgotten Futures offers sweeping new insights into film's relationship with the postcolonial condition and its role in decolonial imaginations of the future Soumitra
