Make 'em Laugh! Zeke Jarvis, 2015-04-07 This lighthearted and eye-opening book explores the role of comedy in cultural and political critiques of American society from the past century. This unprecedented look at the history of satire in America showcases the means by which our society is informed by humor from the way we examine the news to how we communicate with each other to what we seek out for entertainment. From biographical information to critical reception of material and personalities, the book features humorists from both literary and popular culture settings spanning the past 100 years. Through its 180 entries, this comprehensive volume covers a range of artists/individuals such as Joan Rivers, Hunter S. Thompson, and Chris Rock and topics including vaudeville, cartoons, and live performances. The content is organized by media and genre to showcase connections between writers and performers. Chapters include an alphabetical listing of humorists grouped by television and film stars, stand-up, and performance comics, literary humorists, and humorists in popular print.

Flipped Doug Pagitt, 2015-02-17 We all have stories in our heads about God, humanity, life, and the meaning of it all. One of the most common and misleading stories is, "If I'm faithful in doing this, then God promises to do that." Jesus didn't believe it, and neither should you. God does not insist that you play by the rules before he will respond to you. A careful reading of the Bible will free all of us from trying to make a deal with God, inviting us instead to live in God. How would your life change if you flipped your understanding of God? Doug Pagitt takes a new look at provocative statements made by Jesus, Paul, and the prophets. Jesus turned the tables on religious assumptions every time he began with, "You have heard it said, but I say to you." Paul quoted a pagan poet when he revealed the truth that we live, move, and have our being in God. Come along on a journey of discovery and change, leading to a flip in your view of where God is and where we are in relation to God. Set aside the rules of religion and know the freedom of living in God.
