Wolfgang Guggemos

Dew In The Morning Shimmer Chinodya:

Dew in the Morning Shimmer Chinodya, 2001 A sharply perceived evocation of changing life in rural Zimbabwe during the 1960s and 1970s Narrated from the point of view of a young boy Godi it follows the fortunes of a city dwelling family who establish a small farm in the country As Godi grows himself he observes the growth of the village as the people strive to resolve tensions between conflicting values and ambitions

Eco-critical Literature Ogaga Okuyade, 2013 Eco Critical Literature Regreening African Landscapes critically examines the representations constructions and imaginings of the relationship between the human and non human worlds in contemporary African literature and culture It offers innovative incisive and critical perspectives on the importance of sustaining a symbiotic relationship between humans and their environment The book thus carries African scholarship beyond the mere analysis of themes and style to ethical and activist roles of literature having an impact on readers and the public It is a scholarship geared towards rectifying ecological imbalance that is prevalent in many parts of the continent that forms the setting context and thematic discourse of the works or authors studied in this book Besides sensitizing the African readership to the need for the restoration of harmony between man and the environment this book equally aims to further familiarize scholars and students working on African literature and culture with the theoretical concerns of eco criticism

Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola, Aribidesi Adisa Usman, 2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from Preface and Introduction

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English

Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Female Identity in Contemporary Zimbabwean Fiction Katrin Berndt,2005 Zambezia ,1988
