Shakespeare and New Historicist Theory Neema Parvini,2017-01-26 Over the past three decades no critical movement has been more prominent in Shakespeare Studies than new historicism And yet it remains notoriously difficult to pin down define and explain let alone analyze Shakespeare and New Historicist Theory provides a comprehensive scholarly analysis of new historicism as a development in Shakespeare studies while asking fundamental questions about its status as literary theory and its continued usefulness as a method of approaching Shakespeare s plays

The Structures of Everyday Life ,2020 During the month of April 2020 the artist downloaded and printed on a home office printer the front pages of a variety of international newspapers Articles relating to the dominant news story were then redacted by hand using gold foil This folder presents a remaking of four of these prints

The Structures of Everyday Life takes its name from the second book in French historian Fernand Braudel s trilogy Civilization and Capitalism 15th 18th Century It presents history as being made up of large systems that evolve slowly over time and suggests that wars famines and plagues can often distract from deeper more significant developments in our societies <https://louisporter.com> THE STRUCTURES OF EVERYDAY LIFE THE NEWS

The Oxford Handbook of the History of Consumption Frank Trentmann,2012-03-22 The term consumption covers the desire for goods and services their acquisition use and disposal The study of consumption has grown enormously in recent years and it has been the subject of major historiographical debates did the eighteenth century bring a consumer revolution Was there a great divergence between East and West Did the twentieth century see the triumph of global consumerism Questions of consumption have become defining topics in all branches of history from gender and labour history to political history and cultural studies The Oxford Handbook of the History of Consumption offers a timely overview of how our understanding of consumption in history has changed in the last generation taking the reader from the ancient period to the twenty first century It includes chapters on Asia Europe Africa and North America brings together new perspectives highlights cutting edge areas of research and offers a guide through the main historiographical developments Contributions from leading historians examine the spaces of consumption consumer politics luxury and waste nationalism and empire the body well being youth cultures and fashion The Handbook also showcases the different ways in which recent historians have approached the subject from cultural and economic history to political history and technology studies including areas where multidisciplinary approaches have been especially fruitful

Material London, ca. 1600 Lena Cowen Orlin, 2012-10-19

Between 1500 and 1700 London grew from a minor national capital to the largest city in Europe The defining period of growth was the period from 1550 to 1650 the midpoint of which coincided with the end of Elizabeth I s reign and the height of Shakespeare s theatrical career In Material London ca 1600 Lena Cowen Orlin and a distinguished group of social intellectual urban architectural and agrarian historians archaeologists cultural anthropologists and literary critics explore the ideas structures and practices that distinguished London before the Great Fire basing their investigations on the material traces in artifacts playtexts documents graphic arts and archaeological remains In order to evoke material London ca 1600 each scholar examines a different aspect of one of the great world cities at a critical moment in Western history Several chapters give broad panoramic and authoritative views what architectural forms characterized the built city around 1600 how the public theatre established its claim on the city how London s citizens incorporated the new commercialism of their culture into their moral views Other essays offer sharply focused studies how Irish mantles were adopted as elite fashions in the hybrid culture of the court how the city authorities clashed with the church hierarchy over the building of a small bookshop how London figured in Ben Jonson s exploration of the role of the poet Although all the authors situate the material world of early modern London its objects products literatures built environment and economic practices in its broader political and cultural contexts provocative debates and exchanges remain both within and between the essays as to what constitutes material London ca 1600

Reading Matter Arthur Asa Berger, 2008-10-01 To be civilized involves among other things making using and buying objects Although speculation on the significance of objects often tends to be casual there are professionals anthropologists historians semioticians Marxists sociologists and psychologists who analyze material culture in a systematic way and attempt to elicit from it reliable information about people societies and cultures One reason that analyzing objects has been problematical for scholars is the lack of a sound methodology governing multidisciplinary research Reading Matter addresses this problem by defining a comprehensive set of methodological approaches that can be used to analyze and interpret material culture and relate it to personality and society Berger offers discussions of the main concepts found in semiotic historical anthropological psychoanalytic Marxist and sociological analysis He provides practical descriptions of the working methods of each discipline and demarcates their special areas of investigation Berger s lively discussions include a wealth of illustrative examples that help to clarify the complex and often difficult theories that underlie interpretations of material culture In the second part of his analysis Berger uses these disciplines to investigate one subject fashion and an important aspect of fashion blue jeans and what the author calls the denimization phenomenon Here he shows how different methods of reading material culture end up with different perspectives on things even when they are dealing with the same topic The author s focus is on the material culture of post literate societies and cultures both contemporary and historical This comparative approach enables the reader to trace the evolution of objects from past to present or to see how American artifacts spread to different cultures acquiring a wholly new meaning in the process Reading Matter is an important contribution to the study of popular culture and social history It will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists and cultural historians Arthur Asa Berger is professor emeritus of broadcast and electronic communication arts at San Francisco State University and series editor of Transaction s Communication and Mass Culture and Humor Studies series He is the author of many books including Manufacturing Desire and Agitpop Civilization and Capitalism, 15th-18th Century Fernand Braudel,1985 Biography of a Hacienda Elizabeth Terese Newman,2014-04-17 Winner James Deetz Book Award Society for Historical Archaeology Biography of a Hacienda is a many voiced reconstruction of events leading up to the Mexican Revolution and the legacy that remains to the present day Drawing on ethnohistorical archaeological and ethnographic data Elizabeth Terese Newman creates a fascinating model of the interplay between the great events of the Revolution and the lives of everyday people In 1910 the Mexican Revolution erupted out of a century of tension surrounding land ownership and control over labor During the previous century the elite ruling classes acquired ever increasingly large tracts of land while peasants saw their subsistence and community independence vanish Rural working conditions became so oppressive that many resorted to armed rebellion After the war new efforts were made to promote agrarian reform and many of Mexico s rural poor were awarded the land they had farmed for generations Weaving together fiction memoir and data from her fieldwork Newman reconstructs life at the Hacienda San Miguel Acocotla a site located near a remote village in the Valley of Atlixco Puebla Mexico Exploring people s daily lives and how they affected the buildup to the Revolution and subsequent agrarian reforms the author draws on nearly a decade of interdisciplinary study of the Hacienda Acocotla and its descendant community Newman s archaeological research recovered information about the lives of indigenous people living and working there in the one hundred years leading up to the Mexican Revolution Newman shows how women were central to starting the revolt and she adds their voices to the master narrative Biography of a Hacienda concludes with a thoughtful discussion of the contribution of the agrarian revolution to Mexico s history and whether it has succeeded or simply transformed rural Mexico into a new global hacienda system The Structures of Everyday Life Fernand Braudel,1981 Nineteenth-century Literature Criticism Laurie Lanzen Harris,1981 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative writers who lived between 1800 and 1900 from the first published critical appraisals to current evaluations Civilization and Capitalism, 15th-18th Century, Vol. III Fernand Braudel,1992-12-23 By examining in detail the material life of pre industrial peoples around the world Fernand Braudel
