Cut Patricia McCormick:

Cut Patricia McCormick, 2000 A tingle arced across my scalp The floor tipped up at me and my body spiraled away Then I was on the ceiling looking down waiting to see what would happen next Callie cuts herself Never too deep never enough to die But enough to feel the pain Enough to feel the scream inside Now she s at Sea Pines a residential treatment facility filled with girls struggling with problems of their own Callie doesn t want to have anything to do with them She doesn t want to have anything to do with anyone She won t even speak But Callie can only stay silent for so long Cut Patricia

McCormick, 2024-05-21 An astonishing novel about pain release and recovery from two time National Book Award finalist Patricia McCormick A tingle arced across my scalp The floor tipped up at me and my body spiraled away Then I was on the ceiling looking down waiting to see what would happen next Callie cuts herself Never too deep never enough to die But enough to feel the pain Enough to feel the scream inside Now she s at Sea Pines a residential treatment facility filled with girls struggling with problems of their own Callie doesn t want to have anything to do with them She doesn t want to have anything to do with anyone She won t even speak But Callie can only stay silent for so long Engaging Empathy and Activating Agency Alice Hays, 2021-04-15 This book provides a step by step guide for teachers to implement an action based curriculum using young adult literature to engage students with contemporary issues In addition to reading ELA core standards including speaking and writing are addressed within this curriculum Each chapter focuses on a different aspect of the curriculum helping students find their passion guiding them in collaborative group reading of relevant novels supporting them in researching writing and speaking about their topic and helping them translate their ideas into action within their school and community The book is set up in such a way that teachers can follow the curriculum from beginning to end or if they choose incorporate only some of the chapters The author brings the curriculum alive with teacher and student voices about their experiences The appendix describes contemporary middle school and high school novels that address a variety of social justice topics Ultimately the book supports teachers as they inspire their students to examine issues with empathy research potential solutions and exercise agency as they take action to help address issues the students are passionate about

The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff, 2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource

Madwomen in Social Justice Movements, Literatures, and Art Jessica Lowell Mason, Nicole Crevar, 2023-01-10 Madwomen in Social Justice Movements Literatures and Art boldly reasserts the importance of the Madwoman more than four decades after the publication of Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gubar s seminal work in feminist literary criticism The Madwoman in the Attic Since Gilbert and Gubar's work was published the Madwoman has reemerged to do important work rock the academic boat and ignite social justice agency inside and outside of academic spaces moving beyond the literary context that defined the Madwoman in the late 20th century In this dynamic collection of essays scholars creative writers and Mad activists come together to re-define the Madwoman in pluralistic and expansive ways and to realize new potential in Mad agency This collection blazes new directions of thinking through Madness as a gendered category comprised of a combination of creative works that re-imagine the figure of the Madwoman speeches in which Mad-identifying artists and writers reclaim the label of Madwoman and scholarly essays that articulate ambitious theories of the Madwoman The collection is an interdisciplinary scholarly resource that will appeal to multiple academic fields including literary studies disability studies feminist studies and Mad studies Additionally the work contributes to the countermovement against colonial-sanist patriarchal and institutional social practices that continue to silence women and confine them to the metaphorical attic Appealing to a broad audience of readers Madwomen in Social Justice Movements Literatures and Art is a cutting-edge inquiry into the implications of Madness as a theoretical tool in which dissenting deviant and abnormal women and gender-nonconforming writers artists and activists open the door to Mad-futurities
