

Technology Plan

Write your institution's technology plan for the coming year and the next five years. Use your own and your institution's data as well as your own research on the current status of U.S. higher education technology. Organize the technology plan around specific institutional outcomes. Consider the role of technology in your institution's goals, such as the quality of your students' college and career experiences, student success, and institutional effectiveness. The technology plan should be a living document that is updated and revised as the institution's needs and goals change over time. Use your plan to guide your institution's technology investments and to inform your institution's strategic planning process.
