Introducing Ethics Justin P. McBrayer, Peter J. Markie, 2014 Introducing Ethics A Critical Thinking Approach with Readings combines guiding commentary and questions with a rich selection of concise carefully edited and accessible readings on ethical theory and contemporary moral issues This unique introduction shows students how to do philosophy by first analyzing texts identifying ethical positions and the arguments that support them and then evaluating the truth of those positions and the soundness of the arguments In doing so it provides students with a uniquely engaging introduction to ethics that also hones their critical thinking skills

FEATURES A unique Unit 1 gives students the conceptual tools to do philosophy with coverage of logic arguments moral reasoning and reading and writing philosophy Extensive coverage of the three main areas of ethics metaethics normative ethics and applied ethics addresses issues often ignored by other texts including ethics vs science moral responsibility moral vs legal issues torture terrorism and more Unit and chapter introductions outline major themes and issues and explain why they matter Reading questions precede the essays and focus students studying on key points while discussion questions follow the readings and help students move into the evaluation phase Argument Reconstruction Exercises after each reading provide practice in identifying the premises and conclusions in the essays An Instructor's Manual with Test Bank on CD is available to adopters A Companion Website at www.oup.com/us/mcbrayer provides all the material contained on the CD along with student resources

Analytic Philosophy Without Naturalism Antonella Corradini, Sergio Galvan, E. J. Lowe, 2006-07-29 In recent years numerous attempts have been made by analytic philosophers to naturalize various different domains of philosophical inquiry All of these attempts have had the common goal of rendering these areas of philosophy amenable to empirical methods with the intention of securing for them the supposedly objective status and broad intellectual appeal currently associated with such approaches This volume brings together internationally recognised analytic philosophers including Alvin Plantinga Peter van Inwagen and Robert Audi to question the project of naturalism The articles investigate what it means to naturalize a domain of philosophical inquiry and look at how this applies to the various sub disciplines of philosophy including epistemology metaphysics and the philosophy of the mind The issue of whether naturalism is desirable is raised and the contributors take seriously the possibility that excellent analytic philosophy can be undertaken without naturalization Controversial and thought provoking Analytic

Philosophy Without Naturalism examines interesting and contentious methodological issues in analytic philosophy and explores the connections between philosophy and science
