Disrupting the Center Rebecca Hallman Martini,2022-04-15 Strategic partnership offers writing centers a framework for responding to disruptive innovations in higher education Through partnership writing centers can simultaneously secure resources and support the practice of tutoring writing in ways that enable moments of resistance where writing consultants and students can tactically challenge the corporate university through their methods of practice

Disrupting the Center explicates analyzes and critiques one particular writing center s partnership approach to collaboration with disciplinary faculty and upper administrators across the curriculum Using on site research and critical ethnographic study from one university writing center Rebecca Hallman Martini establishes an innovative cross disciplinary partnership approach to writing instruction in which peer tutoring plays an integral curricular role Case studies detail three partnerships that respond directly to existing or potential disruptive innovations in higher education and showcase important concepts mapping mutual benefit and stakeholder engagement in an online studio hybrid first year writing program partnership in response to online education creating negotiated space to work through ethical issues involved when working with a public private partnership to develop a required extracurricular portfolio project in a business school and building transformational partnerships through establishing a writing in the professions curriculum in the College of Engineering in response to career readiness initiatives

Disrupting the Center uses interviews observations focus groups analysis of consultations meetings and shared documents such as annual reports budgets assessment data assignments and syllabi to generate a wide view of how systems work Writing centers are flexible university wide service spaces where students go for one on one and group writing support that can become dynamic spaces for writing pedagogy by disrupting revitalizing and reinventing the epistemic foundations of current rhetoric and composition landscapes and traditional approaches to writing

Partners in Literacy Allen Brizee,Jaclyn M. Wells,2016-07-18 Partners in Literacy describes the process research relationships and theories that guided a three year partnership between the Purdue University Writing Lab and two community organizations in Lafayette Indiana the Lafayette Adult Resource Academy and WorkOne Express This partnership resulted in a new section of the globally known Purdue Online Writing Lab OWL and the Community Writing and Education Station CWEST which featured adult literacy resources in the areas of GED preparation English as a Second Language and workplace and job search literacy Using an empirical and iterative design process the authors worked closely with their community partners to develop test revise and launch these resources In Partners in Literacy the authors argue that writing centers can be effective spaces from which to work with the community and that writing centers missions of sustainability outreach and research driven practice can offer valuable philosophies for civic engagement To support this argument the book discusses the research methods and findings the process behind developing and sustaining the three year engagement project and the personal relationships that
