Islamiyat Textbook English Class 1:

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system. The book examines the questions: Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan? And how has their rule worsened the country's problems? The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society. The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis, interviews, and textbook analysis. This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program. I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions: How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing? I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed. Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky-high inflation. The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class. Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions. Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam? Why don't they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan? Instead, many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools. More importantly, why do the ulama, which literally means those who possess knowledge, particularly of Islam, maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions? Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder and discrimination against Pakistani minorities? Book Review: Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions, intolerance, and conflicts. Dr. Amna Afreen documents the political, socio-economic, and religious causes, limited government funding, widespread poverty and illiteracy, and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools. madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms. John L. Esposito, University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding, Georgetown University. The One That Got Away Syeda Anese Majid Khan, 2012-01-20 Volume 1. Early one January morning in 1928, a young mother is busy with her children when a stranger appears at her gate with a special gift. With instructions to nurture a lotus for forty days, the holy man informs the mother that she will bear one more child, a daughter who will be the spirit of her life and whose arms will enfold her in death. Nine months later, Anese Majid Khan enters the world into an aristocratic family in a subcontinent of India. This is her story. In The One That Got Away: The Truth Revealed, Khan shares the details of her incredible journey as she shuns a life of royal luxury and leisure and tirelessly dedicates herself to a life of global service As she provides a revealing glimpse into the trials and tribulations that led her on an eventual path to world prominence as a scholar writer and founder of a school Khan offers an inspirational message to others to persevere and most importantly to believe in themselves while seeking their own destinies The One That Got Away The Truth Revealed shares the fascinating story of how one woman built an amazing legacy during her relentless search for the truth

The Qur'an and the Sunnah Taha Jabir Al-Alwani, Imad al Din Khalil, 1995-01-01 For too long now the Qur an and the Sunnah great sources of strength purity knowledge and inspiration for the Ummah have not been adequately tapped Skirting their peripheries or over dwelling on one or two of their multifarious facets and tributaries has done a disservice to the immense potential of the fountainhead while denying the Ummah indeed the whole world innumerable benefits from them Now that the Ummah is becoming increasingly aware of its own problems as well as latent powers and yearns to revive its leading role in the forging of history and civilization the issue of drawing on the wellspring becomes more relevant and urgent Revisiting these two sources is no longer a scholastic academic nostalgic or escapist indulgence but a great journey of discovery that promises untold rewards Paradoxically the journey through the resplendent pages of the Qur an and the Sunnah to a time and place in the past should yield a more mature awareness of the dynamics of social and historical change and a human being s role on earth honing and sharpening the Muslims capacity to deal with the demands of the present moment and the challenges of the future Suggestions for a new reading of the Qur an and the Sunnah have been put forward from Islamic and other angles in the recent years In this book Dr Al Alwani and Dr Khalil two well known Muslim thinkers contribute their views for a proper approach to these sources from within the Islamic framework
