Historical Fiction Reading And Writing Project:

Historical Fiction for Children Fiona M. Collins, Judith Graham, 2013-10-18 Historical fiction has a great deal to offer as its readers and devotees have always known. The time is ripe however for the historical novel and historical picture book to be promoted more emphatically so that many more are made aware of the delight and learning to be found in the genre. The editors of this book invited authors, academic writers and teachers to reflect on the nature, scope, range and richness of historical fiction for children. What is collected here provides an overview of the field, a consideration of significant writers of historical fiction from the nineteenth century onwards, a sense of the various historical eras commonly explored, Stone Age to World War 2, a discussion of commonly raised issues, themes and topics such as child labor, slavery and migration, and a forum for writers to reveal their insights into the writing of historical fiction. Julian Atterton, Berlie Doherty, Michael Foreman and Philip Pullman have made contributions. It provides evidence of children and students engaging creatively with historical fiction.

PART 3 offers practical exercises and advice on such topics as research, plots and characters, mastering authentic but accessible dialogue, and navigating the world of agents and publishers.

Let's Create Writers Timothy Horan, 2021-10-21 In this book Dr Timothy Horan presents an original and highly effective writing program whose major goal is to transform middle school students into competent and confident writers. This writing program is innovative, rigorous and engaging and was designed with the student in mind. This book contains a total of twenty original writing assignments: ten for seventh grade and another ten for eighth grade. These assignments are based on middle school students' natural predilections and developmental levels and represent creative interpretations of the Common Core Writing Standards. Each writing project in this book is full and complete and is described with clarity and simplicity. Each assignment also includes a reproducible outline that presents the assignment to students in a simplified graphical format. The pedagogical philosophy underlying this program is simple and effective. It seeks to provide students with enjoyable writing assignments that students will understand, learn from, and complete. As students progress through the program, they will develop an upbeat emotional bond with the act of writing and will learn to approach composition with a sense of optimism and confidence.
