Brand Islam Faegheh Shirazi, 2016-08-02 From food products to fashions and cosmetics to children's toys a wide range of commodities today are being marketed as halal permitted lawful or Islamic to Muslim consumers both in the West and in Muslim majority nations However many of these products are not authentically Islamic or halal and their producers have not necessarily created them to honor religious practice or sentiment Instead most halal commodities are profit driven and they exploit the rise of a new Islamic economic paradigm Brand Islam as a clever marketing tool Brand Islam investigates the rise of this highly lucrative marketing strategy and the resulting growth in consumer loyalty to goods and services identified as Islamic Faegheh Shirazi explores the reasons why consumers buy Islam branded products including conspicuous piety or a longing to identify with a larger Muslim community especially for those Muslims who live in Western countries and how this phenomenon is affecting the religious cultural and economic lives of Muslim consumers She demonstrates that Brand Islam has actually enabled a new type of global networking joining product and service sectors together in a huge conglomerate that some are referring to as the Interland A timely and original contribution to Muslim cultural studies Brand Islam reveals how and why the growth of consumerism global communications and the Westernization of many Islamic countries are all driving the commercialization of Islam The Routledge Handbook of Global Islam and Consumer Culture Birgit

Krawietz, François Gauthier, 2024-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of Global Islam and Consumer Culture is an outstanding inter and transdisciplinary reference source to key topics problems and debates in this challenging research field The study of Islam is enriched by investigating religion and notably Islamic normativity fiqh as a resource for product design attitudes toward commodification and appropriated patterns of behavior Comprising 35 chapters including an extended Introduction by a team of international contributors from chairholders to advanced graduate students the handbook is divided into seven parts Guiding Frameworks of Understanding Historical Probes Urbanism and Consumption Body Manipulation Vestimentary Regimes and Gender Mediated Religion and Culture Consumer Culture Lifestyle and Senses of the Self through Consumption Markets These sections examine vibrant debates around consumption frugality Islamic jurisprudence and fatwas in the world economy capitalism neoliberalism trade relations halalization labor tourism and travel infrastructure body modification fashion self fashioning lifestylization Islamic kitsch urban regeneration heritage Islamic finance the internet and Quran recitation versus music Contributions present selected case studies from countries across the world including China Indonesia Malaysia Morocco Nigeria Qatar Pakistan and Turkey The handbook is essential reading for students and researchers in Islamic studies Near and Middle Eastern studies religious studies and cultural studies The handbook will also be very useful for those in related fields such as politics area studies sociology anthropology and history Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Islam, Media and Education in the Digital Era
