Belloli, 1997 Daniel Libeskind represents a unique attempt to provide a comprehensive critical analysis of Libeskind's architecture and philosophy Libeskind serves as the mediator of his own work exploring various projects through an illuminating juxtaposition of textual commentary with illustrations of competition models concept drawings and site photos of realized works Essays by Jacques Derrida and Mark C Taylor among others provide a critical analysis of Libeskind's architecture identifying his place within the context of contemporary architecture and theory The book concludes with a collection of Libeskind's most important essays many of which are published here in English for the first time

Radix-Matrix Daniel Libeskind, 1997 Visual Culture and the Holocaust Barbie Zelizer, 2001 A book that looks at both the traditional and the unconventional ways in which the Holocaust has been visually represented The purpose of this volume is to enhance our understanding of the visual representation of the Holocaust in films television photographs art and museum installations and cultural artifacts and to examine the ways in which these have shaped our consciousness The areas covered include the Eichman Trial as covered on American television the impact of Schindler's List the Jewish Museum in Berlin the Israeli Heritage Museums Women and Holocaust Photography

Occasional Deconstructions Julian Wolfreys, 2012-02-01 In Occasional Deconstructions Julian Wolfreys challenges the notion that deconstruction is a critical methodology offering instead a number of reintroductions or reorientations to the texts of Jacques Derrida and the idea or possibility of deconstructions Proceeding from specific readings of various texts both film and literary as well as mobilizing a number of issues from Derrida's recent work surrounding questions of ethics politics and identity Wolfreys considers the role of deconstruction in broader academic and institutional contexts and questions whether in fact deconstruction can be called upon to function as theory at all In this book Wolfreys suggests that the patient necessary work of reading in which response and responsibility to the other has a chance to manifest itself is necessary to the always political and ethical tracing of the material and the historical He also contends that reading should be an encounter that gives place to an acknowledgment of the other and that this singular act by which one is introduced to the other can never be programmed

The Architecture of Light Mary Ann Steane, 2012-11-12 Reviewing the use of natural light by architects in the era of electricity this book aims to show that natural light not only remains a potential source of order in architecture but that natural lighting strategies impose a usefully creative discipline on design Considering an approach to environmental context that sees light as a critical aspect of place this book explores current attitudes to natural light by offering a series of in depth studies of recent projects and the particular lighting issues they have addressed It gives a more nuanced appraisal of these lighting strategies by setting them within their broader topographic climatic and cultural contexts
