The intimate personal journals of two occultists practising western magick to achieve The Great Work, also known as awakening or enlightenment. With its humour, honesty and down to earth approach, extending beyond the cult following it gained after its original publication in the late noughties, The Baptist's Head Compendium has proved itself a seminal text and indispensable guide to anyone suspicious of or disillusioned by magick purely as a tool for personal power or material gain. Sharing the details of their discoveries and mistakes in the process of making them, Chapman and Barford demonstrate how magick is a genuine spiritual tradition leading to enlightenment. They have their minds blown and the strangest experiences of their lives. By holding nothing back but sharing all results and methods, the reader is equipped to embark on their own exploration of magick as a path to spiritual awakening. Originally published as a trilogy but long since out of print, these books are now available for the first time in a single volume, revised and updated with new introductions by the authors. Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library, Research Libraries, 1992. The Healing Spirit of Plants Clare G.
