New Perspectives on the Qur'an Gabriel Reynolds, 2012-03-29 This book continues the work of The Qur n in its Historical Context in which an international group of scholars address an expanded range of topics on the Qur n and its origins looking beyond medieval Islamic traditions to present the Qur n s own conversation with the religions and literatures of its day Particular attention is paid to recent debates and controversies in the field and to uncovering the Qur n s relationship with Judaism and Christianity After a foreword by Abdolkarim Soroush chapters by renowned experts cover method in Qur nic Studies analysis of material evidence including inscriptions and ancient manuscripts for what they show of the Qur n s origins the language of the Qur n and proposed ways to emend our reading of the Qur n how our knowledge of the religious groups at the time of the Qur n s emergence might contribute to a better understanding of the text the Qur n s conversation with Biblical literature and traditions that challenge the standard understanding of the holy book This debate of recent controversial proposals for new interpretations of the Qur n will shed new light on the Qur anic passages that have been shrouded in mystery and debate As such it will be a valuable reference for scholars of Islam the Qur an Christian Muslim relations and the Middle East

Ingénierie Juridique Et Le Droit Comparé Eleanor Cashin-Ritaine, 2008

Myth of Islamic Tolerance Robert Spencer, 2005-01-31 This collection of essays by some of the world s leading authorities on Islamic social history focuses on the juridical and cultural oppression of non Muslims in Islamic societies The authors of these in depth but accessible articles explode the widely diffused myth promulgated by Muslim advocacy groups of a largely tolerant pluralistic Islam In fact the contributors lay bare the oppressive legal superstructure that has treated non Muslims in Muslim societies as oppressed and humiliated tributaries and they show the devastating effects of these discriminatory attitudes and practices in both past and contemporary global conflicts Besides original articles primary source documents here presented also elucidate how the legally mandated subjugation of non Muslims under Islamic law stems from the Muslim concept of jihad the spread of Islam through conquest Historically the Arab Muslim conquerors overran vast territories containing diverse non Muslim populations Many of these conquered people surrendered to Muslim domination under a special treaty called dhimma in Arabic As such these non Muslim indigenous populations mainly Christians and Jews were then classified under Islamic law as dhimmis meaning protected Although protected status may sound benign this classification in fact referred to protection from the resumption of the jihad against non Muslims pending their adherence to a system of legal and financial oppression as well as social isolation The authors maintain that underlying this religious caste system is a culturally ingrained contempt for outsiders that still characterizes much of the Islamic world today and is a primary impetus for jihad terrorism Also discussed is the poll tax Arabic jizya levied on non Muslims the Islamic critique of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights the use of jihad ideology by twentieth century radical Muslim theorists and other provocative topics usually ignored by Muslim apologists This hard hitting and absorbing critique of Islamic teachings and practices regarding non Muslim minorities exposes a significant human rights scandal that rarely receives any mention either in academic circles or in the mainstream press

Islam Jacques Waardenburg,2008-08-22 This book presents some twenty essays on different aspects of Islam in history and the present These essays are grouped into eight larger sections The first The Beginnings deals with the transition from pre Islamic understandings and reason an essential part of the Quranic message The next two sections deal with Islam specifically as a religion with its particular signs and symbols The question of rules of interpretation in Islam and its structural features is discussed here Sections four and five deal with ethics in Islam including Muslim identity and human rights and certain social functions of Islam Section six introduces some 19th and 20th century reform movements with special attention given to developments in Saudi Arabia and the puritan characteristics of present day Islamic revival movements The final two sections discuss contemporary issues Islamization processes and policies Islamic ideologies the ideologization of Islam and the political uses of religion Throughout the book the author shows the links between the religious and other interpretations and uses made of Islam and the contexts in which they are made The Introduction signals some important developments in Islamic studies since World War II
