Polemical Encounters

Mercedes García-Arenal, Gerard Wiegers, 2018-12-03 This collection takes a new approach to understanding religious plurality in the Iberian Peninsula and its Mediterranean and northern European contexts Focusing on polemics works that attack or refute the beliefs of religious Others this volume aims to challenge the problematic characterization of Iberian Jews Muslims and Christians as homogeneous groups From the high Middle Ages to the end of the seventeenth century Christian efforts to convert groups of Jews and Muslims Muslim efforts to convert Christians and Jews and the defensive efforts of these communities to keep their members within the faiths led to the production of numerous polemics This volume brings together a wide variety of case studies that expose how the current historiographical focus on the three religious communities as allegedly homogeneous groups obscures the diversity within the Christian Jewish and Muslim communities as well as the growing ranks of skeptics and outright unbelievers Featuring contributions from a range of academic disciplines this paradigm shifting book sheds new light on the cultural and intellectual dynamics of the conflicts that marked relations among these religious communities in the Iberian Peninsula and beyond In addition to the editors the contributors are Antoni Biosca i Bas Thomas E Burman M nica Colominas Aparicio John Dagenais scar de la Cruz Borja Franco Llopis Linda G Jones Daniel J Lasker Davide Scotto Teresa Soto Ryan Szpiech Pieter Sjoerd van Koningsveld and Carsten Wilke General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1955 British Museum.
