How Languages Are Learned 3rd Edition:

How Languages are Learned 4th edition - Oxford Handbooks for Language Teachers Patsy M. Lightbown, Nina Spada, 2013-01-10 Teachers are often told that new teaching methods and materials are based on the latest research But what does this mean in practice This book introduces you to some of the language acquisition research that will help you not just to evaluate existing materials but also to adapt and use them in a way that fits what we currently understand about how languages are learned

How Languages are Learned Patsy M. Lightbown, Nina Spada, Nina Margaret Spada, 1999 This book is a comprehensive and readable introduction to how languages are learned It presents the main theories of first and second language acquisition and with the help of activities and questionnaires discusses their practical implications for language teaching

Learning and Teaching Languages Through Content Roy Lyster, 2007-01-01 Based on a synthesis of classroom SLA research that has helped to shape evolving perspectives of content based instruction since the introduction of immersion programs in Montreal more than 40 years ago this book presents an updated perspective on integrating language and content in ways that engage second language learners with language across the curriculum A range of instructional practices observed in immersion and content based classrooms is highlighted to set the stage for justifying a counterbalanced approach that integrates both content based and form focused instructional options as complementary ways of intervening to develop a learner's interlanguage system A counterbalanced approach is outlined as an array of opportunities for learners to process language through content by means of comprehension awareness and production mechanisms and to negotiate language through content by means of interactional strategies involving teacher scaffolding and feedback

How Languages are Learned Patsy Lightbown, Nina Spada, 2006-04-27 How Languages Are Learned provides a readable introduction to the main theories of first and second language acquisition relating them to approaches to classroom methodology and practice
