2015 -16 The State of Agricultural Commodity Markets Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-04-18 Global trade in agricultural and food products has grown rapidly in recent decades with countries becoming more engaged in this trade whether as exporters or importers This trend is expected to continue over the coming decades As a consequence trade will play an increasingly important role in influencing the extent and nature of food security across all regions of the globe The challenge has therefore become one of ensuring that the expansion of agricultural trade works for and not against the elimination of hunger food insecurity and malnutrition This edition of The State of Agricultural Commodity Markets aims to reduce the current polarization of views on the impacts of agricultural trade on food security and on the manner in which agricultural trade should be governed to ensure that increased trade openness is beneficial to all countries By providing evidence and clarity on a range of topics the report seeks to contribute to a more informed debate on policy choices and to identify required improvements in the policy processes within which these choices are made

Value by Design Eugene C. Nelson, Paul B. Batalden, Marjorie M. Godfrey, Joel S. Lazar, 2011-02-23 Value by Design is a practical guide for real world improvement in clinical microsystems Clinical microsystem theory as implemented by the Institute for Healthcare Improvement and health care organizations nationally and internationally is the foundation of high performing front line health care teams who achieve exceptional quality and value These authors combine theory and principles to create a strategic framework and field tested tools to assess and improve systems of care Their approach links patients families health care professionals and strategic organizational goals at all levels of the organization micro meso and macrosystem levels to achieve the ultimate quality and value a health care system is capable of offering

State of Agricultural Commodity Markets Food And Agriculture Organization Of The United Nations, 2016 In the first half of 2008 the world was facing the highest food price levels in 30 years and a global food insecurity crisis Although international food prices have since fallen they are still above the levels seen in recent years and are expected to remain so FAO estimates that soaring food prices pushed another 115 million people into chronic hunger in 2007 and 2008 bringing the world to nearly one billion hungry people This report explains why food prices increased and the steps needed to ensure that high food prices become an opportunity for developing country farmers to help safeguard world food supplies at affordable prices

Sustainable Development and Resilience of Tourism Deepak Chhabra, Navin Atal, Alka Maheshwari, 2024-08-29 This volume examines progress in sustainable and resilient development of niche forms of tourism from a health and wellbeing perspective It also aims to offer deep and innovative insights on the supporting role of non pharmaceutical interventions to enhance resilience and wellbeing of visited and visiting communities A comparative and critical discourse of the role of hard medicine is also offered from both a core and supplementary perspective particularly from eudaimonic and physiologically restorative standpoints Furthermore indigenous non pharmaceutical interventions and spiritual healing mechanisms are discussed in the context of their potential to facilitate long term immunity and happiness The book conceptually situates health as a fourth pillar of sustainability and examines its role in stimulating long lasting transformations rooted in positive psychology inner transformation and sustainable consumption of organic products and services It designs an evolving transformational Quality of Life paradigm that strengthens the foundations of health wellbeing based sustainable development initiatives and resilience of tourism systems The work will be of interest to academic professional and various public and private stakeholders of tourism such as destination marketing organizations policy makers hospitality industries tour operators host communities NGOs and government agencies
