

William Blake's life

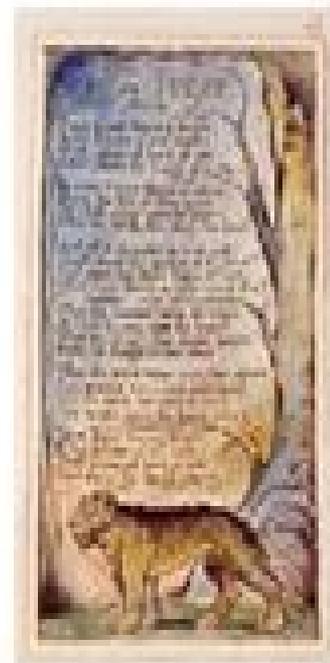

Poet, artist and mystic William Blake was one of England's most original thinkers. William Blake was a Romantic poet. This means that he wrote during the Romantic era in the late 18th and early 19th century and on topics like nature, creativity and individuality, while hinting at the hardships of reality.

Blake was born in Soho, in 1757, the son of a hosier. He would spend his life in London. As a child, Blake claimed to have seen God at his window, and angels adorning the treetops of Peckham Rye. He would have "visionary imaginations" throughout his life, and many regarded him as a madman. At the age of 10, Blake was apprenticed to an engraver, and later, studied briefly at the Royal Academy.

Blake died in poverty in 1827 and is buried alongside Daniel Defoe and John Bunyan in London's Bunhill Fields. Blake's The Tyger is probably the most anthologized poem in English literature.

Key

Hosier - a person who makes or deals in hose or stockings or goods knitted or woven like hose.

Blake was a pioneer in visual poetry, which he called 'illuminate d printing', consisting of text and engraving

All annotations must be written in your poetry anthologies. If you run out of space, do use post-its.
