The Making of Goddess Durga in Bengal: Art, Heritage and the Public Samir Kumar Das, Bishnupriya Basak, 2021-05-21 This book examines the making of the Goddess Durga both as an art and as part of the intangible heritage of Bengal As the original site of production of unbaked clay idols of the Hindu Goddess Durga and other Gods and Goddesses Kumartuli remains at the centre of such art and heritage The art and heritage of Kumartuli have been facing challenges in a rapidly globalizing world that demands constant redefinition of art with the invasion of market forces and migration of idol makers As such the book includes chapters on the evolution of idols iconographic transformations popular culture and how the public is constituted by the production and consumption of the works of art and heritage and finally the continuous shaping and reshaping of urban imaginaries and contestations over public space It also investigates the caste group of Kumbhakars Kumars or the idol makers reflecting on the complex relation between inherited skill and artistry Further it explores how the social construction of art as art introduces a tangled web of power asymmetries between art and craft between an artist and an artisan and between appreciation and consumption along with their implications for the articulation of market in particular and social relations in general Since little has been written on this heritage hub beyond popular pamphlets documents on town planning and travelogues the book written by authors from various fields opens up cross disciplinary conversations situating itself at the interface between art history sociology of aesthetics politics and government social history cultural studies social anthropology and archaeology The book is aimed at a wide readership including students scholars town planners heritage preservationists lawmakers and readers interested in heritage in general and Kumartuli in particular Protest, Upliftment and Identity Bipul Mandal,2022-12-23 The period from 1872 1947 witnessed the rise of many movements in Bengal where those who were considered lower castes were mobilised to protest against the inequality and injustice meted out to them in various fields including religion politics and education The focus of their struggle was the social injustice within the Hindu caste hierarchy Unlike in south and western India where caste movements were often associated with anti Brahmanical movements in Bengal it was upgradation of caste from Sudra to Kshatriya varna The main focus of the study is the Kshatriyaization movement of Rajbansis the Matua movement of Namasudras and the colonial policy of Protective Discrimination and its impact It studies the attempt by Rajbansi community to establish themselves as Kshatriyas in the first half of the twentieth century though the movement started in the late nineteenth century itself It also includes their struggle against the Brahmanical dominance and the elites of their own community Alongside the Kshatriyaization movement a parallel movement for the social uplift started among the Namasudra community which later spread to northern Bengal Their struggle actually began from the time of the first Census in 1872 when the census authorities classified the Namasudras as Chandals in the census report The Namasudra protest movement hereafter developed through a different channel provided by a Vaishnava religious sect named Matua started under a Namasudra leader Harichand Thakur This book is essential for those wishing to understand the socio religious movement of the Namasudra and the Rajbansi communities in their historical context Print edition not for sale in India
