Academic Journal Rankings Business:

How to Get Published in the Best Management Journals Mike Wright, David J. Ketchen, Jr., Timothy Clark, 2020-01-31 This expanded second edition of a classic career guide offers fascinating insight into the publishing environment for the management discipline drawing on a wealth of knowledge and experiences from leading scholars and top level journal editors Responding to the continuing emphasis on publishing in the top journals this revised updated and extended guide offers invaluable tips and advice for anyone looking to publish their work in these publications Ranking Business Schools Linda Wedlin, 2006-01-01 In her admirable book Wedlin entangles what business school rankings really are and why they have become so important The book contains plenty to interest the growing army of business school employees whose duties at least in part are concerned with boosting their institution's position in the rankings Education and Training In times when the management education field is increasingly impacted by a proliferation of ranking exercises this book is a timely and welcome contribution Linda Wedlin unpacks for us the real meaning of the contemporary explosion of rankings Rather than simple classification schemes and mechanisms rankings are she suggests arenas where the field of business education is being created and re created They are the loci of boundary work whereby a field is progressively evolving and constituting itself This is a convincing study relying on rich empirical data and carefully anchored in relevant theoretical debates A must read for all those academics students policy makers and education professionals who want to understand the complex contemporary logics of higher education in management but also probably well beyond Marie Laure Djelic ESSEC Business School Paris France League tables appear everywhere and have become important aspects of business school environments Based on in depth and creatively combined empirical studies Linda Wedlin provides us with explanations and insights on the emergence and impact of such rankings This book should be of great value for all those who seek to play the ranking game It gives a fresh perspective on how classification mechanisms drive the emergence boundary setting and change of organizational fields Kerstin Sahlin Andersson Uppsala University Sweden A fascinating study of the complex issues surrounding MBA rankings Business schools really hate them but at times have to pretend to love them Magazines and newspapers are really interested in their sales potential but have to make pretensions about their veracity Linda Wedlin focuses on an area rich in hypocrisy and hype but also one where there are real consequences ranking furthered re inforces the homogenising tendencies of MBAs Anthony Hopwood Sa d Business School University of Oxford UK This is a most fascinating topic dealt with in a manner which is both serious and entertaining everyone in a business school would want to read it Linda Wedlin's excellent research is presented with a no nonsense approach if there is anything worth counting she counts it and then interprets it no fuss Exemplary Barbara Czarniawska G teborg University Sweden This engaging book offers a fresh perspective on the burgeoning field of European management education and its intense concern with rankings Using a creative mix of well crafted research tools Wedlin deftly captures a professional field in transition as it both expands and develops shared standards Walter W Powell Stanford University US International comparisons and rankings of universities and business schools have proliferated in recent years Ranking Business Schools provides a welcome analysis of this development and its implications for the field of management education theorizing the role of classifications such as rankings in forming and structuring organizational fields Focusing on the European experience with rankings and the subsequent response the book illustrates how business schools use rankings to form identities and positions and to draw boundaries for the field By both creating and confirming belonging to a business school community and providing distinction within that group rankings are important for defining an international field of management education organizations constructing an international business school market and constitute an arena for debating and establishing the boundaries of this field Building an extensive theoretical framework for understanding classification A Guide to Publishing for Academics Jay Liebowitz, 2015-04-08 Most academics still wrestle with the publish or perish phenomenon Based on Dr Liebowitz's 25 years serving as the editor in chief of a leading international journal along with insights from some of the most knowledgeable journal editors this book shares key lessons learned to help new professors doctoral students and practitioner scholars Proceedings of the International Conference on Information Technology & Systems (ICITS 2018) Álvaro Rocha, Teresa Guarda, 2018-01-04 This book includes a selection of articles from the 2018 International Conference on Information Technology organizational models and information systems software and systems modeling software systems architectures applications and tools multimedia systems and applications computer networks mobility and pervasive systems intelligent and decision support systems big data analytics and applications human computer interaction ethics computers health informatics and information technologies in education Networked Governance Betina Hollstein, Wenzel Matiaske, Kai-Uwe Schnapp, 2017-03-30 This edited volume seeks to explore established as well as emergent forms of governance by combining social network analysis and governance research In doing so contributions take into account the increasingly complex forms which governance faces consisting of different types of actors e.g individuals states economic entities NGOs IGOs instruments e.g law suggestions flexible norms and arenas from the local up to the global level and which more and more questions theoretical models that have focused primarily on markets and hierarchies The topics addressed in this volume are processes of coordination arriving at and implementing decisions taking place in networked social structures such as governance of work relations of financial markets of innovation and politics These processes are investigated and discussed from sociologists political scientists and economists viewpoints How to Get Published in the Best Tourism Journals Chris Cooper, C. M. Hall, 2024-04-12 Drawing on a wealth of knowledge and experience from leading tourism academics and journal editors this practical How To guide offers clear sighted advice on how to craft a high quality paper in terms of contribution positioning and submission Accessible and comprehensive it demystifies the process of getting published in the top tourism journals Charting Transnational Fields Christian Schmidt-Wellenburg, Stefan

Bernhard,2020-02-25 The volume provides a field analytical methodology for researching knowledge based sociopolitical processes of transnationalization Drawing on seminal work by Pierre Bourdieu we apply concepts of practice habitus and field to phenomena such as cross national social trajectories international procedures of evaluation standardization and certification or supranational political structures These transnational phenomena form part of general political struggles that legitimate social relationships in and beyond the nation state Part 1 on methodological foundations discusses the consequences of Bourdieu s epistemology and methodology for theorizing and investigating transnational phenomena The contributions show the importance of field theoretical concepts for post national insights Part 2 on investigating political fields presents exemplary case studies in diverse research areas such as colonial imperialism international academic rankings European policy fields and local school policy While focusing on their research objects the contributions also give an insight into the mechanisms involved in processes of transnationalization The volume is an invitation for sociologists political scientists and scholars in adjacent research areas to engage with reflexive and relational research practice and to further develop field theoretical thought

The Researcher's Journey Klaus Solberg Söilen,2025-07-01 Navigating the academic ecosystem involves a variety of challenges that extend beyond the application of research methods These challenges include understanding the university structure academic conferences publication strategy securing research funding and how modern technologies like artificial intelligence have changed the very purpose of researchers Written in an engaging and accessible tone this book guides advanced and early career researchers through the real world challenges that face academics in the social sciences The book is divided into three parts The first gives a brief history of the scientific method and social science research processes the second critically addresses the current state of research methods in the social sciences and the third discusses implications for ethics in light of scientific and technological advances
