

Accounting 1A - Final Project

Annual Report Case Study Overview

- 1) To complete this assignment you will need to use the annual reports of your two companies; i.e. the Primary and Secondary from the pairing of companies you selected.
- 2) Work in assigned study groups. The team will submit one project in addition you will turn in your own analysis for the summary. See the Grading section below.
- 3) The case study analysis is intended to be reflective of the learning from each Chapter of Libby, the Case studies for American Eagle/Urban Outfitters. The team within the guidelines of these instructions construct a format for the project that will present the analysis and application of information in the most effective manner. The instructions provided, include a series of templates Annual Report Case Study Analysis Template, this will assist in guiding the process. In addition, provided is an example of how you may approach the case study, do not dwell on the format, focus on the content and analysis.
  - a. Use the Annual Report Case Study Template to help you formulate narrative responses to be included in your analysis for the journal, company analysis, ratio analysis, and summary sections. As you complete each chapter, more and more of the templates will apply. Therefore, you need to be selective of which templates will help define the narrative for each chapter. The ultimate goal, is to address the content of the Annual Report Case Study Template before attempting to compose the individual SUMMARY.
- 4) You are expected to write narratives about each section. It is not acceptable to copy text directly from the annual reports in to the Annual Report Case Study Template. You are expected to write the narratives. In addition, you must provide citations. Excellent resources for citations: <http://www.cabrillo.edu/services/writingcenter/Plagiarism.html#Quote> or available through the reference desk at the Cabrillo Library The MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Do your own work as a team and as an individual. The purpose of the project is to demonstrate what you have learned, not to mimic Wall Street Financial Analysts. From the Cabrillo Catalog, "Students are expected to know how to credit sources, how to quote and paraphrase, and how to avoid plagiarizing the work of others. If you are unsure, ask your instructor for assistance before you submit your work for credit."
- 5) Grading: You are graded based on the Grading Rubric provided, plus the Student Peer Evaluation for team participation.
  - a. Total of 180 points for the project:
    - i. Company Analysis: (20 points, team effort)
    - ii. Final Project Journal: (90 points, team effort)
      1. Chapter "take aways"
      2. Chapter "Case Studies"
      3. Market Analysis
      4. Ratio Analysis
    - iii. Final Project Individual Summary: 50 points (individual effort)

Financial Accounting Cases Camillo Lento, Jo-Anne Ryan (Associate Professor), 2019-09 Professional accountants continue to be recognized for their strong technical knowledge A strong technical background is still a foundational trait for professional accountants in protecting the public interest Professional accounting bodies across the globe are recognizing the increased importance of higher order cognitive skills such as critical thinking problem solving and analytical ability Many accounting professors continue to struggle to find ways to focus on the development of higher order skills in undergraduate programs Case analysis is an important tool for developing these higher order skills for financial reporting Management Accounting Cases Lynn Carty, Sara Wicks, 2014-07 Managerial accounting gives managers the information they need to make decisions for the future That s why managerial accounting and cases are a perfect fit because both focus on future decision making While textbooks explain concepts and allow students to master problems cases go above and beyond Cases challenge students to critically examine the facts analyze alternatives from a quantitative and qualitative perspective and make recommendations Canadian Managerial Accounting Cases presents cases on a variety of topics at either an introductory or intermediate level of difficulty There is at least one case on each topic in atypical managerial accounting textbook so that instructors can use the case method throughout their course Cases are a great way to support learner centered teaching Classes become a forum for instructors and students to go beyond lectures and problems by discussing and analyzing the case together Detailed teaching notes help instructors plan their lessons and facilitate in class discussions Students are given a framework for analyzing managerial accounting cases similar to the framework used in the professional accounting exams as well as questions to help them in their case analysis. These questions vary in the level of detail so students can grow their case analysis skills. Students learning managerial accounting with cases can see how managerial accounting is used in organizations. They will gain experience in examining the facts, analyzing alternatives, and making decisions—all valuable skills no matter where students' career paths take them.
