1.111 1. How do we, as a company, view the role of the government in the economy?

There are two ways to participate in the economic growth of publicly traded firms without having to manage business risks directly. They have the right to invest and share in the company's growth and also receive some of the cash flow through dividends. In addition, shareholders vote on the decisions of the board of directors and other personnel for the company. Shareholders expect some, but not all, of the cash flow and other benefits of the company. Shareholders expect some, but not all, of the cash flow and other benefits of the company.
