Corporate Reporting Geoff Everingham,Suresh Parbhoo Kana,2008-06-30 The realm of corporate reporting has shifted significantly since the 7th edition of this book was published With the world becoming an ever smaller place the need for a set of global reporting standards has become all the more pressing To this end two major frameworks have emerged as the flag bearers of global financial reporting standards viz International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS and US GAAP The former has been mandatory for all companies listed on the JSE Securities Exchange Limited JSE since 2005 The differential framework ties in well with the recent amendments to the Companies Act in the form of the Corporate Laws Amendment Act CLAA The CLAA marks the first phase of Corporate Law reform in South Africa and aims to introduce amongst other reforms differential reporting for limited interest companies as defined to ease the burden of financial reporting on entities where external use of financial information is limited It will be followed by the new Companies Act which is currently at the Bill stage The CLAA has an effective date of 14 December 2007 The disclosure requirements set out in this book apply to South African enterprises They can therefore be applied to companies close corporations trusts and partnerships irrespective of differences in capital structure Enterprises which are subsidiaries of foreign parent companies may also be required to prepare their financial statements in a format and with disclosure that complies with reporting standards abroad This could lead to disclosure additional to that required in South Africa as set out in this book

Management Accounting, 1970 Accounting and Corporate Reporting Soner Gokten, 2017-09-20 We have spent a great deal of time on the continued development of accounting and auditing standards which are used as a primary component of corporate reporting to reach today's financial reporting framework. However, is it possible to say that currently financial statements provide full and prompt disclosure? Or will they still be useful as a primary element with their current structures in corporate reporting? Undoubtedly, we are deeply concerned about these issues in recent times. This volume contains chapters to discuss today's and tomorrow's accounting and corporate reporting phenomena in a comprehensive and multidimensional way. Therefore, this book is organized into six sections: Achieving Sustainability through Corporate Reporting, International Standardization, Financial Reporting Quality, Accounting Profession and Behavioral Aspects, Public Sector Accounting and Reporting, and Managerial Accounting. The University of Colorado Catalogue University of Colorado, 1947 Catalogue Number University of Colorado, 1947 Building Public Trust Samuel A. DiPiazza, Jr., Robert G. Eccles, 2002-10-02 Business reporting in a post-apocalypse global marketplace. Clearly, now is the time for creating an effective business reporting model appropriate for the markets of the twenty-first century. Rather than start from scratch after the Enron-Andersen fiasco, two leading consultants from PricewaterhouseCoopers present a plan that supplements the current model, one in which executives, accountants, analysts, investors, regulators, and other stakeholders can truly embrace the spirit of transparency. The Future of Corporate Reporting highlights the best practices for global financial reporting, explaining the concept of performance auditing, which focuses on the real performance of the business as opposed to technical adherence to GAAS. Eccles and Masterson also discuss the pros and cons of GAAP v IAS, present new approaches to reforming financial reporting, and outline a twenty-first century model of accounting that will improve markets and benefit shareholders.
