Get Ready, Get Set ... Go Ye!: Emerging Disciples In the Postmodern Era Marsha L. Williams, DMin, MDiv, 2015-02-09 We are called to be disciples and once we come into a real relationship with Jesus Christ to share it with others But recently we have drifted away from making disciples focusing instead on other things In this study author Rev Dr Marsha L Williams shows that discipling as the foundational mission of the church outlined by Jesus in the Great Commission is cyclical and intergenerational and that churches must maintain a current and vibrant message for every new generation As part of her doctoral thesis Williams interviewed recent graduates from the Emmanuel Baptist Church of Tinton Falls New Jersey to update church practices that attract and keep the postmodern generation by evaluating the effectiveness of discipling programs She now considers which practices were fruitful and why explores alternative methods for discipling generation next and develops new activities and relationships to grow an intergenerational link resulting in the disciplined becoming the disciples

Selling Water by the River Shane Hipps, 2012-10-16 Work sex ice cream religion they all promise fulfillment But what they deliver is fleeting Jesus knew about this quest He came to show us that peace is possible in this life not just the next one Yet Christianity the very religion that claims Jesus as its own has often built the biggest barriers to him and the life he promised Celebrated speaker and pastor Shane Hipps revives the faith with a fresh and persuasive understanding of the message of Jesus The shocking truth is that Jesus proclaimed eternal life as a present reality that dwells within each of us A transformative breakthrough this book goes beyond religion or spirituality and cuts to the heart of our humanity and existence It s about realizing that we already possess what we are searching for and that the Heaven we long for isn t just a gift when we die but a gift while we live

Mennonites and Media: Mentioned in It, Maligned by It, and Makers of It Steven P. Carpenter, 2014-12-31 Anabaptists and Mennonites have often been the subject of media scrutiny sometimes admired at other times maligned Luther called them schwarmar a German word meaning fanatics that alludes to a swarm of bees In contrast American independent film producer John Sayles drew inspiration from Mennonite conscientious objectors for his 1987 award winning film Matewan Voltaire s Candide features a virtuous Anabaptist Oscar Wilde s play The Importance of Being Earnest contains an Anabaptist reference An Anabaptist chaplain is central to Joseph Heller's antiwar classic Catch 22 President Lincoln and General Stonewall Jackson both had something to say about Mennonites Garrison Keillor tells Mennonite jokes These are just a few of the dozens of fascinating media references dating from the early 1500s through the present which are chronicled and analyzed here Mennonites although often considered media shy have in fact used media to great advantage in shaping their faith and identity Beginning with the Martyrs Mirror this book examines the writings of Mennonite authors John Howard Yoder Donald Kraybill Rudy Wiebe Rhoda Janzen and Malcolm Gladwell Citing books film art theater and Ngram the online culturomic tool developed by Harvard University and Google the author demonstrates that Mennonites punch above their weight class in the media and especially in print

Science and the Spirit James K. A. Smith, Amos Yong, 2010 What might be described as a Pentecostal worldview has become a powerful cultural phenomenon but it is often at odds with modernity and globalization Science and the Spirit confronts questions of spirituality in the face of contemporary science The essays in this volume illustrate how Pentecostalism can usefully engage with technology and scientific discovery and consider what might be distinctive about a Pentecostal dialogue with the sciences The authors conclude that Pentecostals with their unique perspectives on spirituality can contribute new insights for a productive interaction between theology and science
