Judicial Self-Governance in the New Millennium Tim Bunjevac, 2021-01-29 This book is a comparative study of judge managed court systems across Australia Europe and North America This book makes an original contribution to the literature of court administration by providing a framework for examining court service models of judicial councils the policymaking bodies of courts and tribunals This book promises to assist court administration scholars judicial leaders and policymakers in devising more effective organizational solutions to the contemporary challenges of judicial self governance The author Dr Tim Bunjevac offers a nuanced elaboration of judicial accountability in court administration and a model institutional framework of court governance comparing key Australian and international models of court administration including the Australian Federal and two state court systems Irish English Canadian and Dutch models With a close case study the author puts his sharpest focus on the Victoria Australia which introduced a judicial council in 2014 This book does an innovative job of proposing a new elaboration of judicial accountability in court administration This book proposes that the likely success of any court system reform ultimately depends on the quality of the interaction between the courts government and other justice system stakeholders which must be rooted in the concepts of organizational transparency and administrative accountability
