4 Suggested Answer

I agree with Dr Frazier's opinion that what we wear gives other people messages about ourselves. It has been my experience that people who have an outgoing character tend to wear bright colours and that shy people tend to dress in darker colours and less fashionable clothes so as not to attract too much attention to themselves.

Suggested Answer

Dear Chris,
Thank you for your last letter. I was glad to hear you are well and are enjoying school. School is also going well for me, but I do have a problem I'd like your advice on. I've joined an after-school sports club, and one boy is making it very difficult for me. His name is Thomas. He's a good rugby player like me but he really doesn't seem to like me.

He's tall and strong, with short dark hair. Girls think he is quite handsome. When we're not playing sports he wears nice clothes, usually semi-formal. He likes to wear designer label shirts.

I think being handsome has made him very arrogant and selfish. He's not even very nice to his friends; he is rude and laughs when people get hurt. When any of his friends are nice to me he teases them.

This has been going on for a few weeks now and I don't know what to do. What do you think?

Best wishes,

Tony
