Globalized Nostalgia Christina M. Ceisel, 2018-06-19 In Globalized Nostalgia Christina Ceisel shows how national identity is being remade for the global marketplace Through media cultural events foodways and personal narratives we see how notions of the past are mobilized towards varied political economic and cultural ends In Galicia Spain Ceisel points towards tourism as one mode of cosmopolitan engagement revisiting food festivals wine tours fishing excursions and reality television shows She identifies globalized nostalgia as a feeling deeply connected to national identity that these performances of tourist activity rely on claims to an authentic past based on heritage for value to the consumer While such strategies work to brand the nation Ceisel demonstrates how they may also be employed towards emancipation and an inclusive participatory democracy Placing her own lived experience within the context of our historical present relying on interpretive methods including performance autoethnography Ceisel highlights the tensions embedded in contemporary transnational cultural politics Through the development of innovative methodological tools Ceisel points towards new ways of thinking about the politics of belonging Ultimately Ceisel argues that we need to reorient our understandings of authenticity and heritage to accommodate the realities of hybridity and diaspora

Unwritten Afro-Iberian Memories and Histories Yolanda Aixelà-Cabré, 2024-12-16 This book sketches out an innovative Afro Iberian mosaic that puts forgotten memories and histories into circulation constructing an Afro Iberian past that is critical of the cultural racialization of Spaniards and Portuguese It builds an early late modern and contemporary Afro Iberian history and approaches African and Maghrebi experiences and memories in order to explain the close relation between race class ethnicity and gender in Portugal and Spain between 1850 and 2021 The book approaches the African presence in the Iberian Peninsula by identifying and documenting the traces of these population groups in Spain and Portugal Cultural Studies Anthropology and Sociology are some of the fields that weave together two stories in parallel that are little known the similarities and differences in the social participation of Africans in Spain and Portugal the degree of influence that the sociopolitical framework has had on Afro Iberian coexistence and visibility and the degree of historical depth that Iberian notions have about what is African The volume promotes the study of unknown experiences of Africans in Europe that may allow future critical comparisons on the construction of what is Euro African and Afro European As a result the contributions offer an excellent analysis of the similarities and differences between the narratives and practices of African otherness of two Western European countries marked by twilight overseas empires favouring re readings of common Iberian African and Afro Iberian historical recognition This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
