

The background of the slide is a photograph of a church interior. At the top, there is a large, colorful mosaic depicting several figures, possibly saints or biblical characters, in a traditional style. Below the mosaic, a dark, ornate chandelier hangs from the ceiling. The lower part of the image shows a yellow fabric draped over a structure, with two circular medallions or icons visible. The overall lighting is warm and somewhat dim, typical of an interior church space.

Local and Global Understandings of Creativities Ardian Ahmedaja, 2013-08-19 In music making in company the protagonists have to follow the rules of interaction and create the cohesion of being together At the same time they try to promote personal goals that depend on specific personal treasure troves of experience These are continuously being modified also as a result of the exchange between individuals The perspective of the individuals in company leads the emphasis of the investigations to the ways in which the acts of performance interpretation and local discourse give shape to creative processes in multipart music making and to the definition of the individual collective and collaborative dimensions in this context Focusing on the creators rather than on the produced object the studies included in this volume explore the diversity of the roles powers symbolism meanings and values given to the polyphony of voices in secular and religious traditions based on extensive fieldwork experience The contributors to this volume also consider the UNESCO s Intangible Cultural Heritage List in this context as well as the role of local national and international awards By understanding culture as a drug whose absorption is realised within interacting cells culture appears as a cellular network and music as quite an efficient device for its functioning
