Although much has been written about the 1950s cult film The Searchers Alan LeMay the author of the novel upon which the movie is based has received little attention This welcome biography tells the engaging story of the career freelance writer who sold his first story at age 19 and never held a permanent job LeMay gained success in the 1930s writing Westerns and in the 1940s penning scripts for big outdoor films but he is best remembered for Searchers 1953 and another novel adapted into a popular film The Unforgiven 1957 Sometimes rich but frequently poor LeMay supported a family with his writing and engaged in a variety of ventures including cattle ranching polo playing flying and road racing This narrative of his unconventional life offers an insider's view of Hollywood and conveys the unique stresses of a career in screenwriting

Uljana Wolf Áine McMurtry, 2025-11-03 Against highly current debates on multilingual literary production this original study of the acclaimed contemporary poet translator Uljana Wolf considers how lyric verse is being creatively revitalised through experimental practices across languages genres and media Based in Berlin and New York Wolf is concerned to explore and contest political and linguistic borders through poetry and translation as a poetic practice Despite considerable critical acclaim Wolf's writing has not yet formed the subject of any book length study likely due to its radical form and resistance to straightforward categorisations This English language volume will form the first published collection dedicated to Wolf's oeuvre and ensure that her work is made accessible to the increasing numbers of scholars and students working on multilingual literature Original contributions by Wolf and her translators will consolidate the volume's status as a landmark intervention concerned to trace the aesthetics and politics of Wolf's linguistic and formal experiments Responding to urgent questions driving comparative literature studies today our contributors will focus on Wolf's multilingual works her translational networks and radical textual politics Calamity Jane Paul Francis Webster, 1962 Catalogue of Opera, Operetta, Oratorio and Music Theatre on Television, Film and Video Erich Marinitsch, 1995 Calamity Jane Sammy Fain, 1994 British Catalogue of Music, 1957-1985 Michael D. Chapman, Elizabeth Robinson, 1988 Telling History Joyce M. Birney, Joyce M. Thierer, 2018-03-20 Performing History How to Research Write Act and Coach Historical Performance addresses those areas that are of greatest challenge to novice historical performers Historical performers must approach the process that is their work with a respect for both subject matter the people who made the decisions that lead to what we call history and for audiences whatever the knowledge level they bring to the subject That respect requires careful on going research to wear the mantle of authority while also recognizing that none of us will ever know everything there is to know the mantle is lined with humility It requires the crafting of stories that will interest targeted audiences and the skill to tell those stories in a compelling manner Performing History is crafted for people who want to develop a first person narrative those who have created a first person narrative but want to make it better and those who want to help others develop first person narratives museum and historic site volunteer coordinators program and education curators and of course those who wear many hats in small staffs It is also for teachers parents and partners who are providing support for historical performers
