The Routledge Companion to Media and Tourism Maria Månsson, Annæ Buchmann, Cecilia Cassinger, Lena Eskilsson, 2020-07-07 The Routledge Companion to Media and Tourism provides a comprehensive overview of the research into the convergence of media and tourism and specifically investigates the concept of mediatized tourism This Companion offers a holistic look at the relationship between media and tourism by drawing from a global range of contributions by scholars from disciplines across the humanities and social sciences The book is divided into five parts covering diverse aspects of mediatization of tourism including place and space representation cultural production and transmedia It features a comprehensive theoretical introduction and an afterword by leading scholars in this emerging field delving into the ways in which different forms of media content and consumption converge and the consequential effects on tourism and tourists The collection is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of tourism studies cultural studies and media and communication as well as those with a particular interest in mediatization convergence culture and contemporary culture

The Guardian Index ,2002 PSYCHOLOGY: Research Innovations in young minds Dr Aneesh V Appu & Dr Subha Sachithanand, 2020-09-23 For the past years more emphasis has been given in understanding the level of cultural adjustment that individuals face on migrating to a new country Not much attention has been given on studying repatriates This phenomenological study deals with the experiences of 17 Indian repatriates their emotional challenges and the various coping strategies that they had to employ in order to smoothen their repatriation process on returning to their home country Six main themes were identified on applying thematic analysis to the individual semi structured interviews relief from hardships faced in the host country stronger bond with the home country feeling of being an alien in your home country dynamic factors upon repatriation emotive encounters and coming to terms with chaos associated with repatriation Findings from the study shows that the repatriates had faced many emotional challenges such as feeling of alienation difficulty in adjusting to the old culture and getting a job adjusting to the new work settings grief on leaving the host country idleness and laziness felt on repatriation societal and familial pressure and financial struggles Financial security positive adjustment to the new work settings and the new income scale lessons learned from the hostile experiences faced while abroad pre arrangements done in the home country before repatriating and reintegrating host culture into home culture served as an effective coping strategy which eventually helped them in their successful repatriation over time Michigan School

Moderator ,1891 Business Periodicals Index ,2004 Iowa Studies in Business ,1928 What's Good for Business Kim Phillips-Fein, Julian E. Zelizer, 2012-04-12 This book provides a sweeping interpretation of how business mobilized to influence public policy and elections since World War II Can Journalism Be Saved? Rachel Davis Mersey, 2010-08-06 This book challenges the once dominant social responsibility model and argues that a new individual first paradigm is what will allow journalism to survive in today s crowded media marketplace By some measures it would seem that print journalism is dying Journalism recently suffered one of its worst circulation declines in years a drop of more than ten percent in the a six month period ending September 30 2009 The Rocky Mountain News in Denver CO closed its doors in 2009 after it dominated the AP awards in 2008 and was lauded for an investigative expose on unfair treatment of former nuclear workers Even the New York Times and the Washington Post are experiencing financial trouble But print advertising revenue still trumps online advertising revenue ten fold Is there hope yet for traditional journalism This book reviews the complicated challenge facing journalism tracing its 19th century community oriented origins and documenting the vast expansion of the news business via blogs and other Internet enabled outlets user generated content and news like alternatives The author argues that a radical shift in mindset striving to meet each individual s demands for what he wants to know will be necessary to save journalism
