

TRANSCRIPT FROM BBC'S 'SECRET POLICEMAN' DOCUMENTARY

TO CAMERA/VOICE-OVER: BBC reporter Mark Daly:

"I have been PC 2210 of Greater Manchester Police for the past seven months. But I am also a journalist for the BBC. I was doing both jobs in order to investigate racism in the police. But my double life ended this August when I was arrested.

It's 24 hrs since my release from police custody. On Friday afternoon I was intercepted by two internal affairs officers. I can't express the shock that I experienced when they arrested me for deception. We had no idea they were close to arresting me.

In fact I was looking forward to the time that I would no longer wear the police uniform – the plan was to leave the force and reveal the disturbing conclusions of my investigation.

I'd assumed it would be some of my fellow recruits who would be in deep trouble."

CLIP: PC Pulling: "A dog that's born in a barn is still a dog, a Paki born in Britain is still a fucking Paki."

CLIP: PC Hall: "I'll stop him cos he's a Paki. Sad innit but I would. He's a Paki and I'm stopping him cos I'm fucking English. (laughs)

CLIP: PC Salkeld: "Asian, Paki. It's fucking built in lad. It's built in since you were fucking two."

CLIP: PC Harrison: "I class them as one thing and that's it, Pakis."

TO CAMERA/VOICE-OVER: Daly: "These racist views came from new recruits to the police service who joined alongside me – and they are enough to earn any officer the sack. We applied to a police service that is still reeling from being labelled institutionally racist. The investigation looked at two things: police practices and policies and individual officers. And despite many commendable new policies and training initiatives, I discovered a minority of officers who held extreme racist views.

This was my class at Bruchse National Police Training Centre in Warrington, more than a thousand officers are trained here each year. The eighteen of us in Class 6 spent fifteen weeks together and I am sure that the majority will not be racist police officers, but some are.

The task of infiltrating the LFK's second largest police force was a daunting one. In order to prepare myself for the job ahead, I had immersed myself in the history of the unhappy state of police and race relations in Britain. It was the brutal murder of Stephen Lawrence in 1993 that transformed these relations."

CLIP:

Daly: "Stephen Lawrence's killer – what are your thoughts on that?"
