Contemporary Models for Pro-Poor Housing in Urban Sub-Saharan Africa Lovemore Chipungu, Hangwelani Hope Magidimisha-Chipungu, Joseph Kamuzhanje, 2026-01-13

The proportion of the world s urban population is expected to increase to about 57% by 2050 and the share of Africa s urban population is project to increase to 60% by the same year As a result of this phenomenal growth in urban population urbanization and urban poverty have begun to dominate the development discourse again after years of focusing on rural development Housing is a crucial issue for the urban poor who often lack land to build their own houses or access to financing that would allow them to purchase or build homes and are frequently concentrated in informal settlements with insufficient access to infrastructure health and education services Furthermore housing provision has largely fallen to central governments and policy has largely overlooked the capacity of the urban poor as individuals and communities to provide housing for themselves This book engages these challenges and assumptions offering insight into political economic environmental and financial frameworks that can help facilitate adequate housing options Drawing on examples from case studies across sub Saharan Africa these contributions center the urban poor in initiatives to develop housing infrastructure offering lessons for researchers and governments looking to address an ever escalating housing crisis

The Multi-Disciplinary Instructional Designer Chris Gamrat, Megan Kohler, 2023-04-11 The Multi Disciplinary Instructional Designer explores how the instructional design and development process can be energized and deepened through principles gleaned from other fields of academic study Despite their shared academic preparation and theoretical foundations many instructional designers come to the profession also bearing formative knowledge from a diverse range of other subject areas career tracks creative practices or intellectual pursuits Their training however typically does not prepare them to leverage these specializations into the creation of more effective educational experiences and materials This first of its kind book guides instructional designers to apply key concepts strategies and lessons learned from a variety of disciplines spanning the social sciences arts and humanities and STEM to their practice Chapters replete with example scenarios reflection activities and field tested strategies provide an expansive yet actionable reframing of the profession s potential By seeking inspiration across disciplines and from the world at large instructional designers will emerge with robust and revitalized toolkits ready to enrich their approach to teaching and learning
