

INTRODUCTION TO SCRATCH PROGRAMMING

The screenshot displays the Scratch 2.0 interface. The top navigation bar includes the Scratch logo, a search bar, and user account options. The main workspace is divided into three panels: a sprite area on the left, a block palette in the center, and a script area on the right. The script area contains several 'when green flag clicked' blocks, each followed by a 'say' block, a 'go to x y' block, and a 'point in direction' block. The blocks are arranged in a vertical sequence, with some blocks being nested within larger containers. The 'say' blocks are purple, the 'go to x y' blocks are blue, and the 'point in direction' blocks are blue. The 'when green flag clicked' blocks are orange. The background of the workspace is light gray.
