presents a thoroughgoing exploration of the major fissures of established knowledge created by a new trans disciplinary worldwide project for the twenty first century Focussing on the most fleeting and yet pervasive practices of the performance and screen arts it both documents and analyses the practical theoretical integration of hands on creative and scholarly methods of research Through an innovative combination of manuscript catalogue and digital multi media formats it aims to embody the principles of performance and screen practice as research in its structure and design making book pages and DVD images mutually illuminating With over fifty practitioner researcher contributors Practice as Research constitutes the most comprehensive presentation of this sometimes controversial and frequently fresh way of doing things with an
